

THE
L I F E
O F
General JAMES WOLFE, &c.

H * sent out his Arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out Lightnings, and discomfited them. These are the Words of David, acknowledging, in the Jubilation of a Heart full of Gratitude, the Power of God; when He, the Lord, his Strength and Buckler, the Horn of his Salvation, and high Tower, delivered him from the Hand of all his Enemies, and from the Hand of Saul.

THE same great and mighty God, glorious † in Holiness, fearful in Praises, doing Wonders, has lately manifested his Power and stretched-out Arm, in Defence of this Nation; his Munificence has showered down upon us all the Blessings of Peace, whilst his Justice makes other Nations feel all the Calamities of War; he has

* Psal. xviii. 14.

† Exod. xv. 7.