

eminence O, teacher, do not make a mistake in this matter; "getting on is one thing; getting up another."

CURRENT EVENTS.

Canada has been awarded the "grand prize" in secondary education at the Paris Exhibition.

The Rev. J. T. L. Maggs has been appointed Principal of the Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal.

The report is that the number of teachers attending the Model Schools for training is less than last year.

The Rev James P. Whitney, a graduate of Cambridge, has been appointed Principal of Bishop's College, Lennoxville.

Prof. J. G. McGregor, of Dalhousie University, Halifax, N. S., has been appointed Professor of Physics in the University of Liverpool, in succession to Prof. Lodge.

The annual Convention of the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers of Quebec will be held in the High School, Montreal, on the 18th, 19th, and 20th of October next.

Mr. R. Meek wants the Scriptures read daily in every school in the city of Kingston. At the Board of Education meeting he said if it were necessary to cut anything short in the daily school work, he hoped the Scripture reading would in no way be interfered with.

The Oxford University Press, which is exhibiting in three different groups at the Paris Exhibition, has gained the unique distinction of being awarded three Grands Prix—one each for Higher Education, Book-binding and Oxford India Paper.

An extract from the New Code of the Board of National Education states that permission is given in Ireland to teachers who have Irish-speaking pupils and who themselves know Irish, to use Irish in teaching English, and to Inspectors to use Irish in their examinations.

An expert from the United States of America, in comparing the elementary schools of Great Britain and those of the United States, says that the British schools are more thorough than the American, that the teachers in the British schools work harder, talk more. He thinks too much talk and too much help is given to the pupils. He found a keener desire for learning in the Highlands than in any other part of the United Kingdom or in the United States.

The Minister of Education for Ontario has issued a circular to Inspectors of Public and Separate Schools to the effect that, as English is becoming so important from a commercial and national point of view, and as French-Canadian parents, recognizing this, are desirous of having their children taught the English language, commencing with September next persons desirous of becoming teachers of bi-lingual schools shall take a non-professional course corresponding to the Public School Leaving junior course, and subsequently a professional course