The Ideal Cook Book for Three New Subscribers

In the best sense of the term this is an Ideal Cook Book—ideal in being a practical book—a book which the housewife will want to keep constantly by her side and can depend on, because of the simplicity and reliability of every recipe. Starting with a chapter on soups, naturally the first course, throughout its three hundred pages and over there are to be found more than 1,000 recipes, winding up with an excellent chapter on sick room cookery. Following the cooking section there is a department entitled “The Doctor,” in which are recipes selected from eminent authorities, and which will be found invaluable where the doctor is not readily available. The recipes are numbered throughout the book, and each is prefaced with a list of the ingredients called for by the recipe, rendering it unnecessary for the housewife to read through the entire recipe and make calculation of what is wanted. Size of page is 5 inches by 8 inches, bound in handsome oilcloth covers. It would be a mistake to confuse this book with any paper-bound cook book that would go to pieces in no time. The Ideal Cook Book cannot be had in the bookstores, being published specially for ourselves.

Handsome Dollar Book for One New Subscriber

The book is “LIFE OF CHRIST FOR THE YOUNG,” by Geo. L. Weed—a book of 400 pages, with 74 full-page half-tone illustrations. It has received the commendation of representatives of the leading Christian churches and of the religious press. The author, both by training and sentiment, is thoroughly qualified to write such a book, and has personally visited the Holy Land, enabling him to speak from experience of the scenes described. It is bound in handsome cloth, with embossed front cover. Publisher's price, $1.00.
