

At Mahone Bay the Mission Band have started to raise $20 this year. In Oct. they had raised $5. We would not be surprised if this Band raised more than $20.

The A.M. Society at Tremont, King's Co., is making rapid progress under the leadership of its President, Mrs. R. E. Gullison. The membership at present is forty. Public meetings are held every month, on Sunday evenings. One hundred mite boxes have been distributed, and the members are hard at work filling them. One of the younger members earns her money by reading to her father, who pays her so much per hour. And so on. It is astonishing how many little ways have been found by which to earn this missionary money.

In accordance with a promise made to Mrs. Gullison in August, the Prov. Sec. addressed a meeting at Tremont on Sunday, Nov. 11th. The house was full, and the attention good. The results are with Him who uses the weak things.

On Monday evening, Nov. 5th, a farewell missionary meeting was held in the vestry of the North church, Halifax. The pastor, Rev. D. G. MacDonald, was in the chair, and, after the usual devotional exercises, the evening was given to addresses from Dr. Boggs and Mrs. Churchill. A collection to help defray Mrs. Churchill's expenses to India was taken.

Nov. 13th was Crusade Day at Port Williams. The sisters met in the afternoon, and had a delightful season. In the evening a public meeting was held in the church, presided over by the new President of the Aid Society and the new pastor's wife and our Cor. Sec. of the W. B. M. U. Recitations and dialogues formed a very pleasing part of the programme. Good music, and an address on our North-West mission by Rev. H. Hull, added to the evening's enjoyment and, we may say, profit.

These public meetings must do good. We wish that all our Aid Societies would hold them during the year. Only in this way can we get all in our churches interested in this work.

A recitation was also given by the little daughter of the Secretary of the Aid Society.

(The Prov. Sec. was present and took part.)

"THERE are no newspapers in Seoul, Korea, and the missionaries there sometimes know less of the war than people in the United States. Mr. Mackenzie, a native of N. S., writes:—'Word from Seoul advises me to leave, but after careful thought I have concluded to stay. The Lord placed me here. Our little band will become demoralized if I leave. I have been urging the men here to trust the Lord and not worry. Surely I can do the same, and I have faith to believe the result will be to give us wider opportunities in the Lord's work.'"

Brave Soldier of the Cross! Baptist women remember him in your prayers in the monthly meeting and add your petitions to those of your sisters in the Presbyterian aid societies, that "the Omnipotent Hand will not only cover our brethren in the hour of peril, but use this war to cleanse the nations from their idols."

Surely nothing so unites men and women of different faiths as this work of missions. A command, "Go ye," links the workers at home and abroad.

"A wife can be divorced at the will of her husband by the payment of a sum of money amounting to about two and a half cents."—Missionary Review.
