Editorial.

Mission Band workers are directed to Sister Belle's article in Y. P. U. Department. We would urge co-operation in this matter of the lessons.

MISSIONARY REVIEW.—Those who have usually sent their subscriptions through us will need to send direct to the New York office now, as we no longer have a club.

Mrs. McLEOD died in Prince Edward Island, on the 16th of October. She with her husband returned home from India little over a year ago on account of her ill health. Mr. McLeod will have the sympathy of all.

MR. LAFLAMME writes: "Most cheering news of altogether unprecedented successes in the Telugu fields. North, fills us with joy. Mr. Corey has baptized twenty-five converts on his field at Parlakimedi. Three of these are Brahmins and eleven weavers. Mr. Morse, at Bimlipatam, has recently baptized three men, one of whom is a Brahmin. Three other converts have been immersed at Vizianagram where Bro. Sandford holds the fort. On the Bobbili field eighteen have put on Christ this year from the 'Masters of the Hill,' the same tribe which provided such an inspiring acquisition last year. Then great Chicacole is rejoicing in seven new converts. That makes a total of fifty-six, which, if memory serves me, outstrips any previous year in that mission's work. There are three months yet, and a promise of more to follow. This field has celebrated eight baptisms."

BOARD MEETING.

The semi-annual meeting of the Board was held in the Board-room, November 12th. In the absence of Mrs. Booker, Mrs. Freeland presided. The Executive Committee reported, that in order to undertake Miss Priest's support, it had been necessary to transfer $500 from our grant to Samulcotta Seminary.

The Treasurer reported a very slight advance in regular contributions over the corresponding quarter last year. It is hoped that the receipts from the "Thank-offering" meetings will show a marked increase.

Two very interesting letters from Miss Baskerville were read, regarding her new buildings for the girls' school which she hopes soon to occupy. Notwithstanding the greatest care and economy, the cost of the buildings has exceeded by several hundred dollars the amount appropriated for that purpose. The Treasurer stated there were no funds on hand which could be used to make up the required amount. A "special gift" of $50 had been received for the "sick room," which Miss Baskerville's letter shows to be urgently needed.

The Corresponding Secretary read a letter from Mrs. Stackhouse, of Vancouver, giving an account of the organization of a W. B. F. M. S. As the Society is too small to undertake separate work, their money will at first be sent through the Canadian Societies.

Towards the close of the meeting some time was spent in very earnest prayer, that God would incline the hearts of the people to give so freely that the amount needed for Miss Baskerville's school building may be sent quickly.

MISSIONARY ALBUM.

An album of photogravures of all the missionaries on our foreign staff from the beginning is in course of preparation. It will be prepared with one picture on each leaf of the very best calendered paper, and with a cover tastefully bound with silk cord. The page is five by seven inches. The front page of each leaf will have a colored border, with the picture two by three inches in the centre. There have been, including wives, fifty on the staff since the beginning, and it is hoped that the faces of all will be found in this album.

Four pages of letterpress will contain the outstanding facts and any needful explanations. It is expected that it will be issued the first week in December, and will be admirably adapted as a Christmas present to friends interested in our foreign work. It can be had for the exceptionally low price of thirty cents for a single copy, or twenty-five cents a copy if a dozen or more copies are ordered together. A dozen or more in a Circle or Church could join in one order.

Those who have the work in hand promise a most beautiful production. Send your orders on at once, accompanied by the cash, as only one thousand copies are being issued. Send orders to A. P. McDiarmid, Howland Ave., or G. R. Roberts, Baptist Book Room, Toronto.
