

London, of the stock of music plates and copyrights, some remarkably high prices were obtained. Coote's "Prince Imperial Galop" sold for £990, which is believed to be the highest price ever paid for the copyright of a single piece of music. The same composer's "Snowdrift Galop" was bought by Mr. Coote himself for £561. Among the vocal pieces sold, Blamphin's "Dreaming of Angels" realized £63 16s.; the same composer's "Just Touch the Harp Gently," £113 15s.; Signor Campana's "Speak to Me," £110; and "The Scout," by the same composer, a song rendered famous by the singing of Mr. Santley, sold for £312. The total amount realized was nearly £12,000.
