A New Literary Sensation

The Stickit Minister

And Some Common Men

—BY—
S. R. CROCKETT,
Cloth, $1.25.

Our handsomely bound Canadian copyright Edition of this brilliant production of a new pen is being taken up rapidly. In England the book has already passed into its fifth edition. It has earned a place among the "immortals" of our English literature, and placed its author in the very front rank of living writers. Robert Louis Stevenson enthusiastically commends it. Now sparkling with quiet, delicious humor, again tender with a pathos that sounds the very depths of the heart, it offers all the charms that win for a book not only the admiration but the affection of the reader. You cannot afford to miss it.

READY APRIL 19TH.

THE RAIDERS,

Being Some Passages in the Life of John Faa, Lord and Earl of Little Egypt, by

S. R. CROCKETT,
Cloth, $1.25.

The promise of the author's introductory essay in literature, "The Stickit Minister," is more than fulfilled by "The Raiders." This splendid story, with strength in every line, saturated with local colour, full of insight, humor and pathos, braces up like a fresh breeze from the hills where its scenes are laid. It is an eighteenth century legend of the Wilds of Galloway, told by one of the participants in its stirring scenes. The style of the narrative, in its quaint richness and quiet simplicity, reminds the reader continually of "Lorna Doone." It would be hard to say who, of the two romancers, tells his story best, or lays us under the stronger spell.
