

being sufficiently skilled in judging the values of the kinds of goods insured an expert was employed by the two arbitrators, apparently with the consent and acquiescence of the plaintiff's manager, who made an estimate of the damage to the goods not entirely burned, and this estimate was approved and signed by the two arbitrators and by the umpire. As to the value of the goods which had been entirely destroyed, the defendants' arbitrator and the umpire agreed upon an estimate. An award was afterwards signed by the two latter, but the arbitrator appointed by the plaintiff did not join in making this award.

Held, that the award was binding notwithstanding that the expert had been called in to determine upon valuations, and that the arbitrators and umpire had accepted his estimate; and that no evidence should be received to show that the plaintiff's loss was greater than the amount ascertained by the award.

Hagal, Q.C. and Elliott for plaintiff.

Mulock, Q.C., Munson, Q.C., Richards and Bradshaw for the several defendants.
