LOCAL AND DISTRICT NEWS.

PRESENTATION TO FATHER McBRADY.

The Rev. Robert McBrady, C.S.B., was on Thursday, the 25th of July, treated to a series of surprises. He was invited to meet a few friends on that evening in the hall under St. Basil's Church. He was surprised at the number of his friends, at their expressions of admiration and respect, and finally at receiving a purse well-filled with gold.

If Father McBrady failed to express his thanks in his usual fluent phrases it was not to be wondered at under the circumstances.

Among those present were: Remy Elmesley, J. J. Murphy, Col. James Mason, John Hanrahan, D. Miller, Peter Small, Alex. Robertson, P. Boyle, J. D. Ward, John G. Pennefather, L. V. McBrady and others. Mr. W. T. Kernahan, who made the presentation speech, paid an eloquent tribute to Father McBrady's worth. Mr. W. O'Connor was the chairman for the evening. The reverend gentleman is leaving St. Michael's College to take the position of Superior at Assumption College, Sandwich. May all good go with him, and evil keep far from him, is the heartfelt wish of his many friends in Toronto.

PARKDALE PARISHIONERS.

A meeting of the parishioners of Parkdale was held on Sunday 21st ult., at the school rooms to consider the question of erecting a church, the want of which is very much felt by the residents of the locality. There was a large attendance, including His Grace the Archbishop, who occupied the chair. Very Rev. J. J. McCann, V.G., Rev. James Walsh and Messrs G. P. Magan, William Clarke, J. P. Murray, Dr. Murray, J. J. McKittrick, J. W. Mallon, W. T. J. Lee, J. W. McCabe, W. J. Crotchie, E. M. Sweeney, J. W. Laughlin and others. The feeling of the meeting was unanimous that a church should be built as early as possible, and to that purpose a committee was formed, composed of Rev. James Walsh, William Clarke, J. P. Murray, J. W. Mallon, W. T. J. Lee, to consider the matter fully and report as to requirements and probable cost. The report will be handed in shortly and judging from the spirit displayed and well known liberality of the residents of Parkdale there is no doubt when the subscription lists are started the project will be assured and an edifice erected which will be an ornament to the Catholic Church and a pride to the Catholics of the Flowery Suburb.

PRESENTATION TO FATHER JEFFCOTT.

Rev. Mr. J. Jeffcott, who has been parish priest of Ossawa for over nine years, and who has been appointed to St. Peter, was on Sunday at vespers presented by his Ossawa parishioners and friends with a beautifully-illustrated, engrossed and appreciative address, together with a well-filled purse. The Rev. Father made a touching and appropriate reply. Father Jeffcott goes to his new parish on Thursday. The regret at his departure is universal throughout the town and surrounding country, where he is held in the highest esteem by every body.

CHANCELLOR WM. RAY HONORED.

At the regular meeting of Branch 15 C. M. B. A., corner McCaul and Queen streets, Toronto, July 17th, the members took occasion to present Chancellor Ray with a very handsome silver water pitcher and the following address:

To Chancellor Wm. Ray, of Branch 15, C. M. B. A., Toronto: Dear Sir and Brother—We, the members of Branch 15 C. M. B. A., Toronto, having heard of your recent promotion to the high and honored office of general manager of the firm of Heintzman & Co., and knowing, as we do, your ability, zeal and integrity and other sterling qualities necessary for the proper carrying out of the duties pertaining to such an important office, we are assembled here to-night to show our appreciation of the honor that has been done you, and to congratulate you upon your elevation.

We who have been so closely united with you through the bonds of fraternal love, are in a position to know that you are deserving of the high honor that has been conferred upon you. At no time during the history of Branch 15 did peace and harmony shine brighter than under your able guidance as president of our Branch and we can all recall some very pleasant evenings spent while you presided over us, and our best wish is that you and your partner in joys and sorrows—Mrs. Ray—may be long spared to enjoy the fruits of your labors, and let us in the name of all the members of Branch 15 present to you this water pitcher as a slight token of our esteem for you, and out of the same may you drink to the health of us all.

Frank J. Walsh, President, T. M. Magarty, Recording Secretary. Bro. Ray was taken very much by surprise, and, in his usual genial way expressed his appreciation of the magnificent gift, more particularly the good-will of the members in taking such a kindly interest in his welfare.

The gathering was addressed by several members of the Branch, also visiting brethren, after which refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening spent.

ST. JOHN'S PICNIC AT WESTON.

Weston, July 28.—The annual picnic of St. John's Church was held Saturday in Eagle Grove, and, in spite of the rain, which rather marred the afternoon programme, those present spent a pleasant time, and an evening of dancing was greatly enjoyed. There were no public addresses as had been announced. Mr. J. W. St. John and J. J. Foy, K. C., were there to speak in the afternoon, but they left about 4 o'clock, as the crowd had not assembled. Hon. N. Clark Wallace was also present, but did not speak, and Mr. W. J. Hill, Mr. P. F., sent his regrets from Sault Ste Marie. Allan McMullen won the three story cake.

OBITUARY.

THE LATE R. S. GALLAGHER.

The remains of the late R. S. Gallagher were buried from his late residence, 58 Winchester street, on Thursday morning of last week. A Requiem Mass was said for the deceased in Our Lady of Lourdes Church by the Rev. Father Walsh, of St. Helen's, assisted by the Rev. Father Cruise. Mrs. O'Hara sang "Nearer My God to Thee" during the mass. After the mass the body was taken to St. Michael's Cemetery, where the burial service was read by the Rev. Father Cruise. The chief mourners were the widow, two daughters, Mary and Florence, and a son, Stuart.

Flowers were sent by the following: A wreath by the daughters of the deceased, a large cross by Mr. Bailey and Mr. Mylett, a cross by his employes, a cross by Mr. Peter Small, sr., a pillow by Mr. Hastings, a wreath by Mr. Wm. Martin, a star by Mr. Clemes, a half anchor by Mr. and Mrs. Strachan Cox, a wreath from the wholesale fruiterers, a wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winnett, an anchor from Mr. and Mrs. Hall, and sprays from Mrs. Meade, Mr. and Mrs. Kittrick, Miss Minnie Foley, Mrs. Small, J. K. Clemes and Mr. and Mrs. M. Downs.

THE LATE EUGENE TORPEY.

Peterborough, July 24.—On Saturday evening, at his family residence in Otonabee, one of its most respected citizens passed away in the person of Mr. Eugene Torpey. The deceased was a comparatively young man of fifty-eight years, and in that time by his amiable disposition and integrity of principle had endeared to him a large host of friends and acquaintances. He had a lively appreciation of business, and by his sound judgment and great prudence often cleared away the dark cloud of trouble from the minds of others. In religion he was a faithful member of the Catholic Church and a staunch Liberal in politics.

He leaves behind to mourn his loss a widow, five sons—Michael, Roger, William, John and Eugene—one daughter, Mrs. A. Bowie, and four step-children. Their many friends and acquaintances extend to them a heartfelt sympathy for the loss they have sustained in the death of a kind husband and loving father.

SENATOR McDONALD'S WIFE DEAD.

The Charlottetown (P.E.I.) Herald of July 17 says: We deeply regret to announce the death of Mrs. McDonald, wife of Hon. Senator A. A. McDonald, which sad event took place at her residence early on Friday afternoon. Mrs. McDonald had been suffering from diabetes for some time; and although from time to time there was cause for anxiety no alarm was felt until Tuesday of last week, when complications set in. After suffering for a brief period she became unconscious, and on Friday passed quietly away. The deceased lady was the daughter of the late Thomas Owen, first Postmaster-General of this Province, and sister of the late Thomas Owen, of Cardigan, Hon. I. C. Owen of Charlottetown, George Owen of New Zealand, Charles Owen, of Georgetown, Wallace Owen, of Ottawa, Mrs. George Haszard and Miss Owen, of Charlottetown, and Mrs. Laird, wife of Hon. David Laird, and William and Annie Owen, deceased. Besides her husband Mrs. McDonald leaves to mourn her loss four sons, Messrs. Aeneas, Barrister, and Douglas, in Charlottetown, Percy, merchant, in Meville City, B. C., and Reginald, manager of the Peoples' Bank of Halifax, Port Hood, C. B. Deceased was held in high esteem by all who came within the influence of her personality. During the term of Senator McDonald's tenure of office as Lieutenant-Governor of this Province, Mrs. McDonald discharged the duties at Government House with dignity, grace and hospitality. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended. The pall bearers were Messrs. Charles Lyons, Parker Carvell, H. J. Cundall, D. O'M. Reddin, Horace Haszard and F. de St. C. Brecken. The funeral services were at St. Peter's Church and the interment at St. Peter's Cemetery. To the bereaved husband and family we tender our sincere sympathy.

REV. P. W. CONDON.

New York, July 29.—Rev. P. W. Condon, assistant general of the Congregation of the Holy Cross in the United States, and also an officer in the General Council of the Order for the Province of America, died at Notre Dame, Ind., Friday. Father Condon had been connected with the Order of Holy Cross for nearly thirty years, and during that time had filled many important offices. He joined the order in Canada, and was stationed at St. Lawrence College, near Montreal. In 1872 he came to Notre Dame University, and for several years held the post of Prefect of Discipline. For the last twenty-five years he had been pastor of St. Bernard's Church in Watertown, Wis.

AN OLD-TIME PRINTER DEAD.

Montreal, July 30.—The sudden death yesterday of Mr. John Ford, mail clerk at the Montreal Post Office, and residing at 20 Coursol street, was a shock to his many friends. Mr. Ford has been for many years mail clerk of the Toronto train, and was well and favorably known by the travelling public. The passing away of Mr. Ford is made additionally sad by the fact that only last Tuesday his son William, a lad of fourteen years, while attending the Bakers' picnic at Leunguay River while in bathing with a number of boys.

This unexpected blow came as a great shock to Mr. Ford, who was stricken yesterday with apoplexy from which he did not recover.

The deceased was a printer by trade, and though he has not been employed at the business for about 20 years, he has always kept up his connection with the Montreal Typographical Union, and was at the time of his death on the active membership list, and took more than a passing interest in everything pertaining to the business. Mr. Ford was job foreman of the old Montreal Post newspaper when he received the appointment of mail clerk. About eighteen months ago Mrs. Ford died, and last winter he lost one of his children. The deceased was fifty years of age.

M. J. DUNN, OTTAWA.

Ottawa, July 30.—Mr. Michael J. Dunn died at his home 13 Arthur street yesterday, aged 30 years. He was a conductor on the Ottawa Electric Railway. A car ago last spring he fell from his car in front of the postoffice and was severely injured. He never recovered from the injuries. He was a son of the late James Dunn, and leaves a widow and two children. Mr. James Dunn of the Printing Bureau, Mr. William Dunn of Harris, Campbell and Boyden's, and Mr. Fred Dunn, a cabinet maker, are brothers of the deceased.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at 9 o'clock, from St. Patrick's Church, to Notre Dame Cemetery.

MR. SCHWAB'S GIFT TO CATHOLICS.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 14.—Father Hickey, pastor of St. Thomas' Catholic Church, at Braddock, read the following letter from Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel Corporation, to his congregation this morning:

"New York, July 2, 1901.—Dear Father Hickey: As a personal favor to you and in keeping with our promises of the 19th ultimo, Mrs. Sewab and I agree to erect and pay for St. Thomas' new Catholic Church, Braddock, Pa., at a cost not exceeding $50,000, the whole work to be left to the lowest and most responsible bidder, the plans, bids and specifications to be submitted to this office, 71 Broadway, New York, the work to begin on or after the first day of October, 1901, and to be continued to completion. Yours very truly,

CHARLES M. SCHWAB.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwab were married by Father Hickey eighteen years ago, and while they lived in Braddock they were always much interested in the church.
