CURRENT TRADE CONDITIONS.

ONTARIO.

Late advices do not confirm the reported sale of two Ottawa Valley mill cuts to Montreal exporters, as mentioned in last issue, but it is understood that negotiations are under way and that buyers are not insisting upon any reduction in prices from one year ago. Whether they will meet the higher prices asked by the manufacturers is a question which will probably be decided within a month, when contracts will likely be closed. Conflicting opinions are expressed regarding the stability of the lumber market. The manufacturers are doing their utmost to uphold prices, while dealers and consumers pretend to see lower values in the near future. This is the season when a campaign for lower prices is usually commenced, as buyers wish to stock up early in the spring at advantageous figures. Conditions so far have favored the manufacturers. With few exceptions prices have remained firm throughout the fall months. No. 1 pine cuts have been reduced about $2 per thousand, and some mills are now quoting lath and shingles at a reduction of ten cents, but there has been no general weakness. Trade is seasonably active,
