Burdock BLOOD BITTERS

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC, SUPERIOR COURT.
DISTRICT OF MONTREAL.

Montreal, the fourteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

Be it known, that the Provincial Loan Company, a body politic and corporate, having its principal place of business in the City of Montreal, in the District of Montreal, heretofore known and carrying on business under the name of the Provincial Permanent Building Society, and authorized to change their corporate title by an Act of the Quebec Legislature, 39 Vic. Cap. 62, by their petition dated the 9th of March instant, under number 861, and this day granted by the Honorable Frederick W. Torrance, one of the Judges of the Superior Court, pray for the sale of an immovable therein, described as follows, to wit: "That certain lot of land situated in the Parish and City of Montreal, known and designated as 'the principal part of lot number five hundred and six' (506) on the official plan, and in the book of reference of the said Parish of Montreal, and a small portion of lot number ten (No. 10) on the official plan, and in the book of reference of the St. Antoine Ward, of the said City, containing twenty-two feet six inches in width, 'by eighty feet in depth.'"

Petitioners alleging that there is now due to them under the deed of obligation and mortgage, consented by Moses Roy, of the City of Montreal, engineer, passed before Hunter, notary, on the ninth of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, the sum of one hundred dollars, the capital of the said obligation, the sum of forty-nine dollars and fifty cents, for bonus and interest which have accrued and become due and payable up to the ninth day of January last (1881), the sum of forty-one dollars and twenty-five cents for premiums of insurance paid by them, said petitioners, in virtue of the conditions of the said deed of obligation, and the sum of seventy-five dollars for fines incurred, in consequence of the default to pay the instalments of the said principal sum, interest and bonus, as they became due, the whole forming the sum of two hundred and sixty-five dollars and seventy-five cents, and for which the said herein before described immovable is hypothecated to said petitioners, with interest thereon until paid and cost of these proceedings.

Petitioners further alleging that they have made due search and used due diligence to discover the owner of said immovable, but have been unable to find such owner, and the owner or owners thereof are unknown and uncertain.

Notice is therefore given to the actual owner or owners of said immovable, to appear before this Court, within two months from the date of the fourth publication of these presents, to be inserted once a week during four consecutive weeks, in a newspaper printed in the French language, and in another in the English language, both published in the City of Montreal, and answer the said demand; failing which, and by the judgment to be rendered in this behalf, the said herein before described immovable shall be declared to be hypothecated in favor of said petitioners for the payment of the aforesaid sum of two hundred and sixty-five dollars and seventy-five cents, with interest and costs, and ordered to be sold by the Sheriff, after the observance of the formalities required by law, in order that out of the net proceeds of the sale, the said petitioners be paid of their said claim in principal, interest and costs.
