

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) OTTAWA, Dec. 6.—Three Irish Catholics have named as eligible for the Tory nomination...

A CANDIDATE OF HIS OWN. The reason why our own Conservatives are so numerous is such a simple matter. The up side of it is that all these of the Liberal...

FOR THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. A noble squabble between Mr. Perley and Mr. Macdonald. Neither will give way to the other. Mr. Perley stands the champion...

THE TORY TICKET. The Catholics being the majority of the Ontario Legislature unless he be an Irish Roman Catholic...

IN RUSSELL. The Tories have drawn the lines for the local campaign on the straight "No Popery" issue...

THAT SPEECH KILLED HORNER. The French and the Orangemen now fully know him. I cannot say I feel any deep sympathy for the rejected candidate...

FOR CARLETON. Mr. G. W. Monk, the old member, is again in the fore. He will be opposed by Mr. W. F. Powell, ex-sheriff of the county...

TIM COUGHLIN. As like Robillard in Russell, he has given his name to the Tories. This is another instance of the "No Irish Need Apply" policy of the Tories...

MR. LAURIER'S WESTERN VISIT. I hear it is stated at Toronto that word has been passed among the Orange lodges and the volunteers to prevent Mr. Laurier speaking... to represent you in the Ontario legislature unless he be an Irish Roman Catholic; that this be the essential qualification required...

Further developments of the Tory split have come to light. It appears that Mr. McLeod Stewart is anxious to run for the Commons in Russell county...

nor such a Legislative necessity that he should be given precedence over the Chabots, Laverdurs, Oliviers, &c., in the procession of Pen dants, Orangists, Brokers, Brokers, Brokers...

A more transparent, contemptible, dangerous game never was attempted, and Lib'ers, if there be any such, who allow themselves to be divided, will bitterly regret their folly.

that was not pensioned on the public. If there is to be an existence he could make a fortune by exhibiting himself as the only great living curiosity on earth.

Another member of this lovely commission which is to do so much for the laboring classes is Mr. Helton, of La Presse. He is Mr. Chaplain's journalistic defender...

The Toronto News, whose proprietor, Mr. Sheppard, is at the head of the labor movement in that city, and candidate of the workmen for the Commons in Toronto West...

The Tories are still distracted. They cannot settle upon a candidate for the Local. Last night the Liberals held their ward meetings and appointed delegates to the convention...

I should not be astonished to see the Tories go bodily to the "No Popery" candidate. The more astute leaders of the party may not like it, but they know that to nominate a Catholic means they will have even more damage done to their prospects...

IRISH AFFAIRS TO BE SHELVED. MEASURES OF BRITISH REFORM TO HAVE PRECEDENCE, EXCEPT FOR A NEW COERCION BILL FOR IRELAND—GASTON'S DISAPPROVES THE ANTI-LEAGUE CAMPAIGN—A LEAGUE VICTORY.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The cabinet met today, and will not come together again till after Christmas. The order of business in the coming session of Parliament was revised, and the programme will probably be that the session will open with the introduction of a coercion bill...

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The Glasgow Mail says it is authorized to state that Mr. Gladstone does not approve of the anti-league campaign inaugurated by the National League in Ireland...

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A Mail and Express special from London says:—The Irish Nationalists are exulting over the first fruits of their plan of campaign against landlords...

IN another part of this issue, we present a large advertisement headed "The Giant of Medicine." It goes without saying that H. B. Warner & Co. have educated the people of this country to the belief...

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—Hon. Mr. Foster, Minister of Fisheries, says President Cleveland's disappointment, expressed in his message to Congress, at his efforts to secure a satisfactory settlement of the fishery question...

Another member of this lovely commission which is to do so much for the laboring classes is Mr. Helton, of La Presse. He is Mr. Chaplain's journalistic defender who will perform the will of his master as he always does.

The Toronto News, whose proprietor, Mr. Sheppard, is at the head of the labor movement in that city, and candidate of the workmen for the Commons in Toronto West, says of the commission:—"The Dominion Labor Commission has at last been appointed. Its personnel makes it evident that the object is not to secure a fair and equitable settlement of the fishery question...

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The President will transmit to Congress to-morrow a report from the Secretary of State in regard to the fisheries in the waters adjacent to British North America and copies of the correspondence which has taken place during the present year on that subject.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 7.—The explorer Luitpold Wolff, just returned from the Congo, reports having met in the Sankourou region many tribes of dwarfs, generally measuring less than four feet, and with short and woolly hair. They live by hunting and are wonderfully agile and good tempered.

THE EVIDENCE OF A JUSTICE. Equine Police of class Lika, Michigan, a justice of the peace, was given into the hands of an artist, who painted a picture of a horse from the blood of the animal, after physicians and other medicines failed.

MADE—Mr. Alford in a suit of universal goods, isn't he? Mabel—Yes, he is exceedingly good. Mabel—He is something of a lawyer and something of a musician. What is his profession? Mabel—Well, the lawyers call him a musician and the musicians call him a lawyer.

NOTHING LIKE IT. "I was nearly up with a heavy cold, from which I got no relief until I tried Hays' Catarrh Remedy. I found it a sure cure. There is nothing like it," says Edward Conroy, Reason, Ont.

There is danger in meeting a cold. Many who have died of consumption dated their troubles from exposure followed by a cold which settled on their lungs, and in a short time they were beyond the skill of the best physician. Had they used Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, before it was too late, their lives would have been spared.

Stranger—You say you have been shipwrecked four times? Sailor—Aye, aye, he heartily. Stranger—And what are your sensations when the wild waves break over you and you feel yourself sinking under the water? Sailor—Damp.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—Travelers to and from distant cities would do well to bear in mind that these changes and the altered diet and surroundings of their lives entail manifold risks to health. Occasions are sure to arise in which they will need a remedy such as these renowned Pills and Ointment, and no traveler by land or sea should ever fail to have a supply at hand.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—A special to the Herald from Ottawa says:—The rumor that Secretary Bayard in his report to Congress will recommend the appointment of a damage commission to investigate and report on the amount of damage suffered by American fishermen who have been prevented from taking fish in the disputed Canadian waters...

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The sub-committee on foreign affairs propose to increase the salary of the United States consul-general at Halifax to $4,000, and that of the consuls at Gaspe Basin and Windsor, N.S., from $1,000 to $2,000.

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE. IN SICK HEADACHE. Dr. W. W. Gray, Cayo Spring, Ga., says: "I have given it in several cases of habitual sick headache, with perfect success."

HE was the fool.—"I don't understand why women dress that way," said a man, pointing at a lady who had passed along the street. "I don't, either," replied a bystander. "That woman," continued the first speaker, "is ridiculous. Her husband must be a fool." "I know he is," said the bystander. "Do you know him?" "Oh, yes. I am the fool myself."

PERSONS OF Sedentary Habits, the greater part of whom are engaged in the clerical or business world, are liable to suffer from indigestion, biliousness, constipation and poverty or impurity of the blood.
