OPINIONS.

"If a cultured stranger from another world were to find himself in this one, and were to make a study of our literary advantages, he would be impressed especially, we are confident, by the abundance, variety and high average quality of the contents of LITTELL'S LIVING AGE."—The Congregationalist, Boston.

"There is but one LIVING AGE, though many have essayed imitations. While their intent has, no doubt, been worthy, they have lacked that rare discriminating judgment, that fineness of acumen, and that keen appreciation of what constitutes true excellency, which make LITTELL'S LIVING AGE the incomparable publication it is."—Christian at Work, New York.

"It contains nearly all the good literature of the time."—The Churchman, New York.

"He who subscribes for a few years to it gathers a choice library, even though he may have no other books."—New York Observer.

"Certain it is that no other magazine can take its place, in enabling the busy reader to keep up with current literature."—Episcopal Recorder, Philadelphia.

"It has in the half century of its existence, furnished its host of readers with literature the best of the day, such as cannot fail to educate and stimulate the intellectual faculties, and create tastes and desires for loftier attainments. The foremost writers of the time are represented on its pages."—Presbyterian Banner, Pittsburgh.

"For the amount of reading contained, the subscription is extremely low."—Christian Advocate, Nashville.

"The fields of fiction, biography, travel, science, poetry, criticism, and social and religious discussion all come within its domain."—Boston Journal.

"It may be truthfully and cordially said that it never offers a dry or valueless page."—New York Tribune.

"To read it is itself an education in the course of modern thought and literature."—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

"Coming weekly, it has a great advantage over other magazines and reviews."—San Francisco Chronicle.

"In giving a comprehensive view of the best current literature, the product of the best writers of the day, it stands unrivalled."—Canada Presbyterian, Toronto.
