

And I hope that if we continue to encourage them to accept more responsibility, every year more and more of our Indians will become fully integrated into Canadian life, and that eventually there will be no such thing as Indian Affairs in Canada.

