thousands of tonnes of crushed rock to workers building roads in the Russian 'Nechernozem'ya' (non-Black Earth region); and a large quantity of other cargo.

Work on the main route is ending here until spring, but this far northern port will remain active in the winter: freight for the Arctic is now being shipped through Kandalaksha.

the transfer of the second of Sotsialisticheskaya

Industriya
5 November 1988
Page 1 (Full text)