

Contributions and Grants from the Disarmament Fund FY 1984/85

A. Assistance to Research and Teaching Facilities — Contributions

---

Participation in a May 1984 conference at Ditchley Park entitled "The Means of Settling Disputes Peacefully in Present Times: Insulation of Disputes from the Superpower Rivalry." Presented by the Ditchley Foundation. Prof. Henry Wiseman, Department of Political Studies, University of Guelph. $ 600.00

---

12 University of Toronto Centre for International Studies
==== Contribution to defray travel, accommodation ==== and related expenses for speakers invited to the ==== conference on "Canadian and International ==== Security Institutions" June 14-15, 1984 at Trinity ==== College, University of Toronto. $ 3,250.00

---

Carleton University — Speakers Program
Lecturers for a final-year undergraduate course entitled "Technology and Society: The Arms Race" that examined various aspects of the arms race with particular emphasis on the impediments to the control of armaments. $ 1,700.00

---

McGill Centre for Research on Air and Space Law (an autonomous entity within the Institute of Air and Space Law) Contribution to assist in defraying the expenses of a course on arms control and disarmament issues that included a series of lectures on the military use of outer space, and the acquisition of a collection of books on arms control and disarmament for the Centre's Library. Jean-Louis Magdelénat, Assistant Director, Institute of Air and Space Law, McGill University. $ 16,750.00

---

