

still being banned from the El Chipote prison in Nicaragua. He asked Mr. Clark to look into these matters and make representations protesting the situation to Nicaragua. Mr. Clark replied that he would look into the matter and would ask Nicaragua to give the Red Cross access to the prison.²⁰

Current References

Baranyi, S., "Peace in Central America?", CIIPS Background Paper No. 8, October 1986.

Bricker, C., "Central America and peacekeeping: A workshop report", York Centre for International and Strategic Studies, August 1986.

Broadbent, E., "US harassment of Nicaragua: a choice denied", Globe and Mail, 15 September 1986, p. A7.

Grande, L., William, M., "Rollback or containment? The United States, Nicaragua and the search for peace in Central America", International Security, Fall 1986, pp. 89-120.

United States Secretary of States, "The US and Central America: Implementing the National Bipartisan Commission Report", Report to the President, US Department of State, August 1986.

US Department of State, Democracy in Latin America and the Caribbean: The Promise and the Challenge, Special Report no. 158, March 1987.

Further Reading

Bagley, B. M., Roberto A. and Hagedorn J. K. eds., Contadora and the Central American Peace Process: Selected Documents, Boulder, Westview Press, 1985.

Graham, D. H., Schultz, D., Revolution and Counterrevolution in Central America and the Caribbean, Boulder, Westview Press, 1984.

United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America, "The crisis in Central America: Its origins, scope and consequences", CEPAL Review, No. 22, 1984.

²⁰ Commons Debates, 5 June 1987, pp. 6773-4.