

ARTICLE 12

Safe Conduct

1. Subject to Article 11 (2), a person present in the Requesting State in response to a request seeking that person's attendance shall not be prosecuted, detained or subjected to any other restriction of personal liberty in that State for any acts or omissions which preceded that person's departure from the Requested State, nor shall that person be obliged to give evidence in any proceeding other than the proceedings to which the request relates.
2. Paragraph 1 of this Article shall cease to apply if a person, being free to leave the Requesting State, has not left it within a period of thirty days after being officially notified that that person's attendance is no longer required, or having left that territory, has voluntarily returned.
3. Any person who fails to appear in the Requesting State may not be subject to any sanction or compulsory measure in the Requested State.

ARTICLE 13

Proceeds of Crime

1. The Requested State shall, upon request, endeavour to ascertain whether any proceeds of a crime are located within its jurisdiction and shall notify the Requesting State of the results of its inquiries. In making the request, the Requesting State shall notify the Requested State of the basis of its belief that such proceeds may be located in the latter's jurisdiction.
2. Where, pursuant to Paragraph 1 of this Article, suspected proceeds of crime are found, the Requested State shall take such measures as are permitted by its law to freeze, seize and confiscate such proceeds.

ARTICLE 14

Contents of Requests

1. In all cases requests for assistance shall include:
 - (a) the competent authority conducting the investigation or proceedings to which the request relates;
