

Mr. Marc C. Lemieux, born in Québec City (Quebec), as Ambassador to the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria.

Mr. Lemieux [BA in Geography, Laval University, 1963; MA in Economic Geography, Laval University, 1967] joined the Trade Commissioner Service in 1967. In Ottawa, he has worked as Deputy Director of Personnel, Senior Advisor to the Royal Commission of Inquiry on Conditions in the Foreign Service, Director of Food Products Division and Director of South and Southeast Asia Trade Division. He has served abroad as Consul General in Rio de Janeiro, Ambassador to Ethiopia, and, since September 1986, he has been Consul General in Detroit. Mr. Lemieux is married to Lise Bergeron and they have two children. Mr. Lemieux replaces Mr. Gilles Mathieu.

-----

Michael T. Mace, born in Dauphin (Manitoba), as Ambassador to the Republic of Chile with concurrent accreditation to the Republic of Paraguay.

Mr. Mace [BA, Queen's University, 1964] joined the Department of External Affairs in 1971. He has served abroad in Cairo, Havana, Moscow and Kuala Lumpur. In Ottawa, he has worked as Deputy Director of Political/Economic Personnel Division, Director of Political/Economic Personnel Division and Director of Social Affairs Personnel Division. Since 1987, he has been Counsellor and Consul in Tel Aviv. Mr. Mace is married to Jane Elizabeth McIlraith and they have two children. Mr. Mace replaces Mr. Michel de Goumois.

-----

Mr. Alan P. McLaine, born in Ottawa (Ontario), as Ambassador to the Czech and Slovak Federal Republic.

Mr. McLaine [BA with honors in political science and economics, Queen's University, 1953; Masters Program, Russian Institute (Soviet Studies), Columbia University, 1957; Graduate of Royal College of Defence Studies, London, 1976] joined the Department of External Affairs in May 1953. In Ottawa, he worked as Chief of the Officer Assignment Section, Director of the Personnel Planning and Development Division and Director of Eastern European Division. He has served abroad in Moscow, Havana, Washington and as Minister-Counsellor in Moscow and as Ambassador to Poland. Since 1986, he has been Director General of the USSR and Eastern Europe Bureau. Mr. McLaine is married to Susan Reed and they have four children. Mr. McLaine replaces Mr. Barry M. Mawhinney.