

(1) The amount of any amount to which paragraph 2 may be entitled under this Act is an amount equal to the number of years of pensionable service to the credit of the contributor (not exceeding thirty-five) divided by fifty.

(8) New.

(b) the average annual pay received by the contributor during any six-year period of pensionable service or during a period of or on behalf of the contributor or during any period so selected consisting of consecutive periods of pensionable service totalling six years.

(2) For the purposes of this section

(a) a person who has to his credit pensionable service that includes any period described in any of clauses (1) to (11) of subsection (1) of paragraph (b) of section 51 shall be deemed to have received during that period pay at a rate equal to the rate at which he is entitled to receive the amount required by this Act to be paid by him for that period or periods as determined; and

(b) a period of service during which a person continues to be a member of the forces after he has become to paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2) of section 4 shall be deemed to be a period of pensionable service to the credit of that person.

Clause 8. (1) Sections 51(1) and 52.

(a) if he has served in the forces for three years or less, 30

(b) if he has served in the forces for more than three years but not more than ten years, he is entitled to

(i) a return of contributions or

(ii) a cash retirement allowance, whichever is the greater; and

(c) if he has served in the forces for ten or more years, he is entitled to an annuity.

(2) A contributor who is compulsorily retired from the forces by reason of having become incapable of performing his duties shall be deemed to have served in the forces for less than ten years.

(2) Section 57.

(a) if he has served in the forces for less than ten years, he is entitled to

(i) a return of contributions or

(ii) a cash retirement allowance, whichever is the greater; and