

Business of the House

I may add that the items I have mentioned will not necessarily be dealt with in the order I have given.

Mr. Knowles: In view of the last words of the government house leader to the effect that these various items would not necessarily be dealt with in the order given, may I ask whether the second item he mentioned, namely the Canada labour code measure, will be on the list tomorrow, in view of the government's promise to deal with this matter before Christmas?

Mr. McIlraith: The only item to which I can really give priority is the opting out resolution.

An hon. Member: Welching again.

Mr. Thompson: May I ask whether it is the intention of the leader of the house that we should adjourn the session tomorrow night at six o'clock?

Mr. McIlraith: That is our hope.

It being forty five minutes after ten o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
