

CONTENTS.

xix

CHAPTER V.

[1796-1806.]

	PAGE.
Absence of official papers	511
Mr. Peter Russell administrator	512
No ground for the accusation that he used his position to obtain land	512
Count de Puisaye and the French royalists	513
Chief justice Elmsley protests against removal to York	513
Parliament met at York 1st of June, 1796	514
Alcock appointed chief justice	514
Brant's pretensions with regard to Indian lands granted	514
Death of McKee	515
Policy recommended by him	515
Road to bay of Quinté	516
Hunter's appointments to act in his absence	516
Fatal duel; death of attorney- general White	516
Increase of trade	517

	PAGE.
Ports of entry established	517
Advocacy of construction of the St. Lawrence canals by sir Alexander Mackenzie	517
Population	518
Absence of political agitation	519
Little known of general Hunter	520
Toronto in 1804	520
Readjustment of districts Upper Canada	521
Judge Cochrane	521
Loss of the "Speedy" with all on board	521
Death of Hunter at Quebec	522
Alexander Grant appointed ad- ministrator	522
His antecedents	522
Discontent in the house of assem- bly	523
Supposed to have been created by Mr. justice Thorpe	524
Judge Powell's narrative	524
Grant dissolves the house	525
The first political difficulty ex- perienced	525