for the d been ast from earne.

Passage amenced is did aside is did not er cease ar of the in's Bay

interests
ant facts
, it may that the Arctic
pedition
face of Pole, if
ost pro100° W.
ecimens
a more een supch they were procured; they have been described and arranged in an Appendix, which will long be resorted to as a most valuable detail of facts and observations, collected and made in a part of the globe where, in all human probability, it may never again fall to the lot of man to repeat them, or to make others.