

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

From Colonel Cosby's appointment to his death; and to the appointment of Mr. Clarke as President of the Province, in 1736, - - - 1 to 66

CHAPTER II.

From Governor Clarke's return to England, to the appointment of Governor Clinton, - - - 68 to 151

CHAPTER III.

From the resignation of Governor Clinton, to the appointment of Sir Danvers Osborn as Governor, - - - 151 to 162

CHAPTER IV.

From the death of Sir Danvers Osborn, to the accession of Lieutenant Governor Delancey, - - - 162 to 217

CHAPTER V.

From the time of Lieutenant Governor Delancey's ceasing to administer the government, to the arrival of Sir Charles Hardy as Governor, - - - 217 to 245

CHAPTER VI.

From the absence of Sir Charles Hardy on an expedition against Martinico, to the second assumption of the administration by Lieutenant Governor Delancey, - - - 245 to 284

CHAPTER VII.

From Lieutenant Governor Delancey's death, to the appointment of Lieutenant Governor Colden, during the absence of Sir Charles Hardy, - - - 284 to 308