it almost impregnable; and its citadel is not unusually mentioned as a parallel in strength with the fortress of Gibraltar. The population of the city now exceeds 30,000 souls; but the following tabular exhibit will best show its statistics as taken in the year 1825. Quebec is also the most important seaport of British America, excepting, probably, Halifax. Its harbour, situated upwards of 400 miles from the sea, in the gulf, is perfectly safe and calculated to receive the largest fleet. The average of British shipping seen annually in port exceeds 500 sail, and indeed more than 600 sea-going vessels have been known to be entered inwards in the course of one year. There are an archdeacon and curate for the church of England and one curate for that of Scotland. Among the number of convents one only is a nunnery-school, in the lower town. In the total number of schools as stated in the table the principal only are included.
