

164 THE FATHER OF A SOLDIER

"I woke at 4:30 in the morning, just as we were sailing into England. I was thinking of you and the old days, and couldn't get to sleep again. So I wrote this little poem. Perhaps you might like to use it in your Soldier-book."

THE END