Having examined the proof-sheets and illustrations of your new "Pacific Tourist, and Guide of Travel Across the Continent." we take pleasure in saying that the book conveys more detailed information of the Union and Central Pacific R. R. Line, and the Country through which it passes, than any publication of similar character we have ever seen.

To those intending to settle, the miner, the tourist, the health and pleasure seeker, it is an especially valuable and reliable guide. Hoping it will find the ready sale it merits, we are yours truly,

THOS. L. KIMBALL, G. P. and T. Agent.

I have examined the prospectus and proof-sheets of your "Pacific Tourist," and can state without hesitation that the work meets my unqualified approval. Your book will supply a long felt want for a complete and reliable Guide to those crossing the Continent. I am glad you have undertaken such a work; very few are so well qualified by personal experience and observation of this great region, to know its attractions and resources, and able to present them in a clear and concise manner. Your work has my most hearty commendation, and I am confident you will have the abundant success your enterprise and efforts deserve.

Yours truly,

I am exceedingly well pleased with The Pacific Tourist; the illustrations are of remarkable beauty, and the descriptions of scenery are very interesting.

It is in all respects the best volume yet produced, relating to Travel and Scenery of the Far West; and of the Pacific Railroad, in particular, it is undoubtedly the most full, accurate and complete Guide I have ever seen.

I consider it indispensable to every traveler to California; a great credit to the country, the Publisher, and the Railroad. (signed,) T. SICKELS, Chief Engineer.

I am in receipt of your "Illustrated Trans. Continental R. R. Guide," and will say that it is the handsomest, most complete, accurate and reliable Overland Guide that I have yet seen. The Engravings are well executed, and the scenery selected for illustration, the finest on the route.

I am confident that your efforts to furnish Tourists with a correct and readable Guide, will insure its success.

Allow me to express a hearty appreciation of your "Pacific Tourist."

As a Guide to the Pacific, it is far in advance of any other work of similar character that has come to my notice, and one that you may justly be proud of.

It is replete with valuable information to the traveler, and so interspersed with excellent miscellany, (unlike other so-called Guides) that the reader can not fail to become interested, and close with a verdict of "well done."
