Four Good Bouts At Personal Club's Of ening Show

The Personal Club made its bow to the public last night at the Agnesstreet Theatre, and the small crowd present were treated to a good evening's sport. The main bout between Kid Alberts of New York and Joe Paillips of Providence, for ten rounds at 133 lbs, was a good, clean and clever affair. Alberts was the aggressor from the start, and had a good margin in nearly every round. In the seventh he got the right over a couple of the seminated by the count of the semi-wind-up with Tommy Sturch. Sturch was game, and has improved a lot since his last appearance, but he is not strong enough to tackle a man of Hudson's calibre. The cell saved Sturch in the fifth, sixth and seventh rounds, but Hudson put him down for the count in the eighth with a right to the stomach. ing's sport. The main bout between

Alf. Palmer was given the verdict on a foul over Pete Shaughnessy of Joplin, Mo., in the sixth round. Palmer was having the better of the milling, when Shaughnessy put a hard right hook to the chin in a clinch, and Palmer went thru the ropes and was unable to continue.

In the first preliminary Ted Picton had the better of Parry Peters. Picton had his man down for the count of seven in the first round, and again in the sixth, but he was unable to get over the sleep-producer.

Charlie Carr Picks Star Ball Players Boosts W. Bradley

with us for one year, we sold him to New York Nationals for $11,000 cash. Going some?

"Mr. Watkins made this sale against my advice. I advised him to send Marquard to the Boston Americans. John I. Taylor offered Speaker, Chadbourne, Ralph Glaze and $5000 in cash for Marquard. Speaker was then playing with the Little Rock Club. One year later Speaker developed into one of the star outfielders of the game. If we had made the trade with Boston the Indianapolis Club could have peddied Speaker one year later for $15,000.

"I can't understand how the big leagues passed up Bill Bradley of Cleveland," continued Carr. "I saw him playing third base for the Toronto Eastern League Club this year, and believe me, he's the best looking third-baseman in mimor league ball. A number of clubs tried to draft him this fall, but fortunately for Toronto Bradley escaped the drag-net. He's the best looking ball player that ever was allowed to drop out of the big ring. Bill is a wise boy, takes excellent care of himself and will be playing good ball when a number of big league third-sackers I could name will be out of the business."

Hockey Gossip From Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Dec. 14.—The Ottawa club have announced their attitude in the matter of signing up players for this of Burns:

"McGraw of the New York Nationals bought the star player of my team. His hame is Burns, a 19-year-old boy. He plays the outfield. McGraw paid Utica $4000 for the release of Burns. The ad was formerly a catcher. He bats ight-handed and is a right-field hitter. He'll make good in the big ring. Burns has the best pair of hands of any young all player I've ever seen. Then he can hrow to beat the band, and run the bases like a fiend. I look for Burns o give Jack Murray an argument for the right-field berth in New York next year.

"I managed the Indianapolis Ameriaan Association team for five years before going to Utica. I won one penart with the Hoosiers and finished in the first division three seasons. Rube Marquard and Donie Bush are two of my finds." I picked up Marquard in Cleveland. He signed with Indianapolis for $125 a month. After playing with us for one year, we sold him to New York Nationals for $11,000 cash.

In the Business Men's League at the Toronto Bowling Club last night it was the same old tale repeated, when top-notcher and under-dog clash, Woods-Norris, Limited, like the latter, who are always in hard luck, losing out the first game to Eatonias by only three pins, to latter only collecting an 815 total, while the second game was a continued slump by the big store five putting in their lowest total of the season, but which nevertheless was welcomed by the Limiteds, who always find it hard work to roll against the top-notchers, and welcomed this gift on a silver platter. Eatonias, however, struck their stride in the last game, finishing with a 902 total, while the Limiteds fell back to normal for an 806 collection. Stitt for Woods-Norris, who is always consistent, splith honors with Andy Minty of Eatonias for thre high games with 558 apiece, while Ernie Gibson featured with a 221 cour in the first game.
