SWORD OF HONOR TO ITALY'S CHIEF

General Diaz Presented With Freedom of London, and Ministers Pay Tribute.

London, Oct. 24.—General Armando Diaz, the Italian chief of staff, was given the freedom of the city of Lon-don and presented with a sword of honor today, in recognition of live services in the war. The presentations occurred at a banquet in the Guild-Arthur J. Balfour, who has just re-tired as foreign minister, and becomes lord president of the council, was one of the speakers of the occasion. No. 337 Sherbourne St.

Under instructions from the Executors to the Estate of Maurice Bachrack

The entire collection will be on view evening previous to sale

Winston Churchill, secretary of war, revealed the fact, in the course of a speech, that when the triple alliance oetween Italy, Germany and Austro-Hungary was first concluded, 40 years ago, Italy had stipulated that under no circumstances was she to be drawn into a war with Great Britain. He dwelt upon the sentiments of friend-ship which bind Italy and Great Britain, and paid a tribute to the manner in which Italy had overcome enormous military difficulties in the course of the war. Winston Churchill, secretary of war, of the war.

Mr. Balfour, in his speech, lauded the "immortal acts of heroism" on the Italian front during the great military drama, in which General Diag played a leading role.
