Lady Vera Also Scored at Long Odds--Frank Somers First in Steeplechase.

Three favorites, Anna Smith, Moonaker and Martin Doyle, the second shots, Lady Vera and Tongorder, won the races on closing day at Woodbine Park. The Abbott in the second race. the Bennett entry in the feature event, and Conover in the steeplechase, were the beaten favorites, and of the three only the jumper finished in the money.

the show. Midas and Sheriff Belle were picked for the place and third, the prohibitive odds keeping the general betting public off the winner. IN AN EXHIBITION GAME rest. Gaul scored the fourth for the Capitals in a mix-up in front of Toronto goal. Butterworth was hurt in the mix-up, being hit over the face. He retired, Gordon going off with him. However, they came on shortly after play began. Eastwood and Carmichael got five minutes for slashing, and Kalls and Pringle had a mixup, Pringle being fooled, and breaking his stick when he fell over Kalls. The whistle blew for three-quarters with the score 5—4 in favor of Torontos.

Both teams showed signs of distress in the last quarter. The Cap home were working the Toronto defence, but couldn't score, Torontos had several good chances, but either shot wide of Bouse Hutton relieved. Shea did some good fielding stunts, and passed Toronto men time and time again, but there was nothing doing.
