carded it last spring and being stored away all summer hasn't helped it a little bit. Bring it to me and see what wenders I can work with it, Pressing, mending, cleaning and possibly dyeing will make it look like new and prolong its usefulness indefinitely. The cost is trifling and the investment an excellent one. Do it to-day, please.

We have just bought outright for spot cash 1,000 Boy's Suits at a price positively less than the clothing cost to make. This represents one of the b ggest single purchases ever made in Canada and is intended to give us a fresh grip on the boys' trade. The money we saved in the buying goes to you in the selling. For instance:

-Boys' Fancy Two-piece Suits, with fancy pleats and wide collar, actual wholesale price 1.75

-Boys' Norfolk Two-piece Suits, sizes 23 to 30, actual wholesale price 1.99

No exaggeration. If you've the time we'll show you a full thousand of these suits, some a trifle more expensive, but all below the actual cost of production. We took a manufacturer's entire surplus stock, and got it at our own price.

Miss Creighton has a peculiar record at the tournament. First she was tie for last place in the first consolation, being beaten out by Miss Hart. In Puesday's game she had to go 19 holes before winning out. This she duplicated yesterday in her game with Mrs. Stikeman.

It is likely a number of the ladies competing in the tournament will visit Hamilton Saturday.
