CHICAGO RIVER ON FIRE. Damage to the River Itself "Was Not Serious," But Bridges and

Locks Suffered. Chicago, April 19.-The Chicago River was set on fire last night, and for an hour flames leaped 50 feet into the air from the surface leaped 50 feet into the air from the surface of the stream. The firemen had to work hard to keep them from spreading. The Kinzle-street bridge was in danger. The fire was caused by the ignition of oil, grease and gas, that cover the surface of the river or bubble up from its foul bed. The damage to the bridge, its approaches and the adjoining warehouses and locks, was about $6000. The damage to the river was not serious.

"The Prisoner of Zenda."

That charming tale of love, hate and intrigue, so cleverly told by Anthony Hope in "The Prisoner of Zenda," and revealed in dramatic form by Edward Rose, will, be presented at the Grand Opera House for three nights and Wednesday matinee, commencing Monday next. The parting of the lovers in the last act, while in the distance is heard the pealing of the great organ, accompanied by the chanting of the solemn requiem over the remains of the Black Elphberg, is one of the most pathetic scenes ever seen upon the stage.

be held to-night in Association Hall, bids fair to be one of the musical and social successes of the season. The fact that Waitheu's benutiful cantata, "The Pied Piper of Hamelin," is under the conductorship of Dr. Albert Ham is sufficient to commend it to music-lovers. The solos will be taken by Mr. Arthur Beresford of Roston, basso, and by Mr. J. M. Sheriock, tenor, and Mr. J. Bayley will conduct the orchestra. Miss Irene Sargent, of Syracuse, who is a famous reader, will read Browning's fine poem, "Fra Lippo Lippi," and the famous cavalier tunes will be sung by Mr. Beresford. This program should bring a full house.
