Ladies Rudely Assailed in the Busiest Part of Yonge Street—No Police to be Seen

It is apparent that there is something else for the police to do besides chasing small boys, who indulge their natural predilection for play, off the streets. A few days ago several ladies walking up Yonge street, near Queen street, were deliberately tripped and thrown to the ground by a well-dressed rascal, who thought it an immense joke. This was between 5 and 6 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Yesterday afternoon about 3:30, a lady and her daughter were on their way to Eaton's, when, near the corner of Albert street, a young, short, clean-shaven man maliciously observed the matron with great force in the side. The man treated two other ladies in the same way, and then returned to the first, who had stopped, in path, and was engaged addressing her daughter. The brute returned, and, poking his ugly face into the victim's exclaimed, "Do you mean to insult me?" The ladies fled into a shoe store, near by, and told a young man, who seemed to be frightened out of his wits, as were other "outrageous" citizens, who saw the occurrence, the perpetrator of the outrage evidently being a crank at large. In neither case was a policeman in sight, although in the second instance the ladies searched for one. The police were probably around the side streets, chasing inoffensive children.

He Recommends Hutch.

George Marshall, Esq., Toronto, has an ideal dispensary at the corner of Queen and Berkeley Streets. Mr. Marshall is one of the foremost druggists in Canada and has the reputation of being a very skilful and careful drug preparer. Mr. Marshall stated that Hutch was being used most extensively in his locality and he had heard it endorsed on all sides. He recommended Hutch for dyspepsia and all stomach ailments and was satisfied that it was efficacious.

Never before has any dyspepsia treatment received the class of testimonials accorded Hutch. When business men—those noted for their keen progressiveness—are compelled to write its praises, it will be seen, how marvelous must needs be Hutch's potency.

Ten Hutch ten cents. All druggists, or by mail from the Woodward Medicine Co., Limited, 11 Colborne St., Toronto.

TO BE OPENED ON THE CHEAP

Ald. Hallam's Letter in the Papers Had the Effect of Scaring the Aldermen Off.

BUTCHERS AND THE INJUNCTION

Isolation Hospital Extension Must Stand Over for Another Year—Civic Notes.

People wondered, when Ald. Hallam sprung his piecewise epistle about the opening of the new City Hall, whether he was joking or serious. The probability is that the alderman intended to govern himself according to his reception. If people laughed he would say it was a farce comedy; if they were silent or approving he could take credit to himself for writing a very able and serious play for the civic rulers to enact when the opening was put on the boards.

But the trouble is now that the committee do not know what they will do with the money if they get it. And in the first place they took long to decide how much they wanted. Ald. Denison moved to ask for $500, but his own argument proved a boomerang, for when Ald. Stewart backed him in his claim that the building had been enough opened already, there was an immediate outcry for economy. They still held views between Ald. Stewart's $200 and Denison's $500 in size, excepting Ald. Bowman. He said, "Spend it barrel or spend nothing. There is no half-way with him. Finally the $500 motion was rejected and so was the $200 one, both by a tie vote. Then Ald. Stewart moved $300, but only Ald. Sheppard and Sturges backed him and a tie vote swamped him too. Finally Ald. Steiner intimated awful extravagance and ultra economy on $400 and with Ald. Sheppard, Stewart and Hallam behind him managed to carry the day at that figure.

Had Its Effect.

Ald. Hallam's letter had had an object, but whether it had or not it certainly accomplished one. For it stamped the aldermen back to the original "cheap John" idea of bands, hunting and flowers, speeches and a golden key. The feeling seemed to revert to that again in spite of contrary indications throughout the meeting. The committee manifested an anxiety to co-operate with the Exhibition if possible and a suggestion was made by Ald. Bowman to have Sir Wilfrid Laurier open the building.

The Public Library Board were refused the permanent use of certain old pictures of Toronto hangings at the city city Hall.

Butchers Interfering.

The butchers' injunction against the market improvement has at last taken concrete form. It is to be argued next Tuesday, Anglin and Mallon on behalf of the vendors, and the city on behalf of the consumers.

Amblers for the North.

A fishing club, numbering about 10 people, passed through the city yesterday from the east, en route to Muskoka district. They traveled via Grand Trunk.

Funeral Diverged of Pomp

There Was No Ostentatious Display at the Obsequies of the Late Speaker.

INTERRED IN ST. JAMES' CEMETERY

All Classes Were Represented at the Funeral of Sir James D. Edgar Yesterday.

Devoid of funeral pomp, but with every mark of deepest esteem, the obsequies of Sir James David Edgar, late Speaker of the House of Commons, took place yesterday. None the less impressive were the services, nor less true the respect, though the earnest wish of the family precluded the attendance of the troops of the city.

The funeral was held at the residence of Sir James David Edgar, late Speaker of the House of Commons, at 1114, York street, at 11 o'clock yesterday.
