

Church to their present prosperous condition. The Court also feels that it but voices the mind of the Congregation in expressing their high appreciation of the earnest and faithful manner in which he has during the many years of his pastorate proclaimed the Gospel message. As a tangible expression of these feelings the Court now suggests an addition of $500 per annum to his stipend, commencing the first of January instant, which recommendation will no doubt meet with your unanimous approval.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE HYDE,

Clerk Deacons' Court.
