Now that Lou Marsh has taken a 4,000-mile slant and vaguely hinted that Beckett should win, it only remains for Jim Corbett to pick the winner, and then anybody would be safe placing money. Eddie McGoorty says that Carpentier will win. Eddie is being paid for training, and probably talking too. Jimmy Wilde says Beckett is a great fighter, but says not to take his victory over Goddard too seriously. He says Goddard is only a novice yet. A short two years ago, it took the same Goddard seven rounds at the National Sporting Club to get a decision over Sergeant Bolph of the Canadian forces. Now that Lou Marsh has taken a 4,000-mile slant and vaguely hinted that Club to get a decision over Sergeant Rolph of the Canadian forces. Rolph had no trouble in winning decisions over second-raters like Barney Tooley, but the writer once saw the big Canadian lose what looked like a draw at the very least to old Sergeant Pat O'Keefe, who years ago held the army middle-London may not be close enough to the big artificial ice sheets to get practice in, but the east end open air rink manager has again come to the front with ice for the first practice of the seasor for the juniors between 10 and 11 o'clock tonight.

Last night the Orient Amateur Athletic Association was formed at a meeting held in the clubrooms, and thus respectively against Goddard a few months after this bout. He made Goddard look like the novice Wilde says he is for four or five rounds, and then succumbed. Goddard has met Beckett, at least twice, and in neither of the bouts did Beckett do anything approaching what would have been done to Frank had it been either Dempsey or Fulton he had taken on.

If Carpentier is anything like the man he was when he met Billy Papke in heavy class, and they were both hard hitters and clever, then it would look as support H. H. Temmy Munro has been secured as Temmy Munro has been secured as Temmy Munro has been secured as Tempton on the association.

The juniors have a busy week in prospect. Besides tonight's practice at rink on York street, they will put in work on the floor at the gym on Thursday night from 8 to 9:30, and on Saturday night from 8 to 9:30, and that's a long time in a prize-fighter's life.

A cable from England tells of the fall of one, Sergeant Joe Attwood, who used to hold up the Canadian army end in the boxing game. He was knocked out by Fred Newberry in ten rounds.
