New British War Credit

Will Total $400,000,000

London, Oct. 26.—The supplementary estimate for a vote of credit of $400,000,000, which is to be moved in the house of commons Tuesday, by Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, was issued. This will bring the total loans for the year to £1,900,000,000, and the total since the commencement of the war to £5,692,000,000.

GERMANS OUTRUN ALLIED PURSUERS

Russians Completely Lose Sight of Enemy East of Riga

London, Oct. 26.—The German retreat along the northern Russian front still continues. Russians endeavoring to take up the pursuit have reached the Riga-Orel railway, but have not come within sight of the enemy. On the Estonian coast the Germans again have endeavored to make a landing on the Werder Peninsula to reinforce the troops successfully ashore there last week. The Russians, however, drove them off.

The Russian troops on the northern end of the front, following the Germans in their withdrawal in that sector, have advanced as far as the Riga-Orel railway without discovering the enemy, the war office announces. Russian forces on the Werder coast of Estonia yesterday repulsed a German detachment, the Russian war office announced today.

Part of the German naval squadron, including some dreadnoughts, the statement adds, is anchored in Moon Bay, on the eastern side of Moon Island, in the Gulf of Riga.

JAPANESE ACTION OFFENDS ENTENTE

British and French Object to Attempt to Control China's Affairs.

Peking, Oct. 26.—The Japanese are exerting every effort, officially and unofficially, to close the Chinese arms monopoly contract, carrying control of the Nanking iron deposits and the employment of Japanese military advisers and a director of the new arsenal at Nanking. The Japanese say that they are extending credit, and not making a loan, consequently they are not violating six powers' exclusive rights to make political loans. However, this view is not shared by the French and the British and a large section of the Chinese press, as well as the diplomatic circles, which universally denounce the deal as a revival of the most objectionable features in Japan's demands presented to China in May, 1916, and known as the "Twenty-One Demands." The principal provisions of these demands, which were 21 in number, concerned the appointment of Japanese military and political advisers for China and for Japanese supervision over the purchase by China of munitions during the war.

WAVES OF CANADIAN TROOPS IN ADVANCE

The heavy fire opened all along the front. The Canadians played a gallant part in today's fighting.

Bavarians Left Behind.
Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters in Belgium in a despatch received this evening, says: "The Bavarians appear to be bearing the brunt of the Flanders fighting, and are openly complaining that the Prussians are sacrificing them."

"The German barrage today was erratic, the shells flinging up columns of spray from patches of water. As a result the British casualties were very light."

"Most of the prisoners taken were poor and shuddering. The more intelligent of them were of the unanimous opinion that Germany has only a chance for a tolerable peace, but they feel that the winter will tell a terrible tale in the battlefield. They said they had been told that England was in as bad a plight as Germany in the matter of food, but that they did not believe it. All the men agreed that the invincible German military machine slowly was being pulverized."

DAY OF BITTER FIGHTING.

By R. T. Small, staff correspondent of the Associated Press.

British Front in France and Belgium, Oct. 26.—This has been a day of bitter fighting at many points along the fronts of two attacks initiated at dawn by the entente troops. The battles were still continuing in both zones this afternoon with the attacking forces in possession of still further important German defences and struggling determinedly not only against the morasses and flooded streams which nature had thrown in the way, but against a heavily reinforced and desperate enemy, who is defending himself with his back to the wall.

It is impossible to tabulate the results of the latest struggle at this hour, because of the very character of the conflict, but certain cheering facts are available. The British have achieved a great triumph by pushing forward over the difficult territory around Passchendaele and winning their way to the crest of Bellevue Spur—one of the strongest positions of the Germans in this region.

This feat, which was accomplished after sanguinary fighting, may be said in itself to have warranted the day's wide attack. But Bellevue was not the only important place to fall within the advanced line. In separate operations to the south the British troops battled their way across the ground in the face of a heavy machine gun fire and forced the Forderhoek Chateau to surrender.

Ghelevelt Entered.
While the British were storming this place, which was regimental headquarters, a German officer who had been captured in this section was declaring that Forderhoek Chateau would be held by the Germans if it required ten regiments. He was the son of an officer of the German general staff, and spoke with assurance.

On the Ghelevelt Ridge some adventurous troops even pushed their way into the town of Ghelevelt and returned to their line with prisoners. The French, in a small attack southwest of the Houthulst Forest, achieved their usual brilliant success.

HAMILTON NEWS

PLEASANT SURPRISE FOR THE CITIZENS

Hamilton and McKittrick Firm Settle Dispute of Long Standing.

Hamilton, Oct. 26.—After four years of dickerings, criticism and shelving the dispute between the McKittrick Syndicate and city council and board of cemetery managers is on the verge of settlement. That it will be disposed of at meeting of the council on Tuesday evening is a certainty. Members of the council—a few of them—around the long table in the board of control chamber this evening to familiarize themselves with the terms of settlement agreed upon by the company and the board of control.

These terms were so satisfactory from the city's point of view that Ald. J. H. McKittrick has undertaken the company agreed to them.

Despite the fact that two courts have decided in favor of the defendant, the suit of Laidlaw v. Gillespie-Guy Company will be carried to the privy council. The case involves the sale of a gravel pit in Brant County, which the Gillespie-Guy Company sold to William Laidlaw of Toronto.

While being sued in the ninth division court today as an alleged delinquent "star boarder," Eric Ratcliffe turned the tables on Mrs. M. Bird, the plaintiff, by proving himself to be her son-in-law.

So far the expected rush of men to report at the postoffice has not materialized. Figures at the postoffice yesterday showed that 1748 had registered with 134 claiming exemption and 207 reporting for service. It is evident that the men are getting examined, however, for since the medical boards have commenced business 477 men have passed through their hands.
