DENNINI WANTED FOR MURDER WALKS INTO ARMS OF POLICE

Italian Held for Killing Elizabeth Fallon During Drunken Squabble at Christopher Street a Month Ago.

After a search of over a month, the police Saturday morning located Raffaele Dennini, 36 years, an Italian laborer, wanted for the murder of Elizabeth Fallon, who died in the General Hospital Friday, Dec. 23, after having been struck by Dennini in a drunken squabble over a bottle of whiskey at 11 Christopher-street, the Sunday evening before.

Dennini fled, and when Detective Wickett walked into a store at Dufferin-street and Davenport-road and quietly placed him under arrest, he had shaved off his heavy drooping mustache, which was the chief point in his description.

He was taken to the Ossington-avenue station, and thence to the police court, where he was remanded till Feb. 9, and later photographed and measured by Bertillon Expert Duncan. He was then sent down to the jail.

To the police he admitted that he had been in the Christopher-street house on the Sunday night of Mrs. Fallon's injury. He said that he had brought in a bottle of whiskey which she had taken from him and hidden. He said that he demanded it, and when she refused to produce it, he had struck her on the head with his hand. He had then gone out. He had not left the city. He slept in Manneid-avenue Friday night.

The woman was not removed to the hospital for several days after her injury. She died a day or so after she was taken there, and Coroner Greig's jury brought in a verdict of murder against Dennini, who has been sought ever since by the police. He worked for a time on construction work in Davenport-road since then, but has been unemployed for some time.

A few days ago Detective Wickett heard of his whereabouts, and his search has been constant in the interval.

EGGS ARE EXPENSIVE.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—One of the first results of the threatened cold wave was to send the price of eggs to the highest ever reached in Chicago. Eggs do not lay well in frigid weather, and this fact was seized upon as the basis for an advance of three cents to four cents a dozen. In consequence, quotations to-day were chalked up to 50 cents a dozen wholesale.

PASSENGERS AND CREW SAFE.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Feb. 3.—Three passengers and 48 men of the crew of the Hamburg-American liner Allegheny, which was sunk by the British steamer Pomorian off the Virginia Capes yesterday, were safely landed here to-day by the Pomorian.

HOW I ENLARGED MY BUST SIX INCHES IN THIRTY DAYS

After I had tried Pills, Massage, Wooden Cups, and Various Advertised Preparations without the slightest results

A Simple, Easy Method which any Lady can use at home and quickly obtain a large and Beautiful Bust.

By MARGARETTE MERLAIN

Will do I know the horrors and intense humiliation of being flat-chested; of having the face of a woman set on the form of a man; and I cannot find words to tell you how good I felt, and what a terrible load was lifted off my mind when I first saw my bust had really grown six inches in size. I felt like a new being, for with no bust I realized I was really neither a man nor a woman, but just a sort of creature half-way between.

With what pity must every man look at every woman who presents to him a flat chest—a chest like his own! Can such a woman inspire in a man those feelings and emotions which can only be inspired by a real and true woman's bust? Most certainly not.

The very men who shunned me, and even the very women who passed me carelessly by when I was so horribly flat-chested and had no bust, became my most ardent admirers shortly after I obtained such a wonderful enlargement of my bust. I therefore determined that all women who were flat-chested should profit by my accidental discovery, and have a bust like my own. 1 Portland Street, London, W., Eng.

According to the line-up of the city council the second reading of the Sunday sliding bill was passed at the meeting on Monday and there is no possibility that a two-thirds vote could be secured, which would put the bill in force at once. At the last meeting when the vote was taken upon the first reading the council voted against Sunday sliding by fifteen to eight.

An amendment, however, will be moved by Controller McCarthy to the effect that Sunday sliding be prohibited only upon those slides "constructed and operated by the city," thus allowing tobogganing on natural hillsides. It is doubtful what kind of a reception this will meet with, but it is known that some of the members who supported the original motion will support the amendment. Should this amendment be carried it would doubtless conciliate a considerable part of the opposition, and the bill likely receive support on this ground.

Ald. McBrien purposes to solve the problem by a referendum and will make a motion to this effect. There has been considerable agitation for such a measure in connection with the Flour-street viaduct, the money highway for the proposed new public schools and other enterprises, and many are of the opinion that the city council would be quite justified in submitting the Sunday sliding and other questions to the people at an early date.

DARROW PLEADS NOT GUILTY. LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 3.—Charles S. Darrow, former chief counsel for the McNamara, pleaded not guilty to-day to the two indictments charging him with jury bribery.

WILLMANTIC, Conn., Feb. 3.—On the ground that she was the spiritual adviser of the complaining witness, Rev. J. J. Pappilon, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, to-day declined to explain to Judge Arnold of the police court, his action, as alleged by the girl, in advising Fortunato Trudell to go to Canada instead of testifying against Exzellus Phaneuf, a business man whom she had charged with assault. The court sharply criticized the priest for his attitude. Phaneuf, who had taken the girl's slighing, was to have been tried a week ago. The girl was not present and the complaint was a note she had sent him, saying she had gone to Canada upon advice of Father Pappilon.

The priest said he knew the girl, but declined to give any further information on the ground that he was the girl's spiritual adviser. The court said: "The lack of proper evidence compels the authorities to drop the matter."

BRANTFORD, Feb. 3.—(Special)—Twenty-one wandering Dookhobors, including women and children, are camped in the shed at Brant Church, three miles outside of the city, where they spent the night with the mercury seven below.

The local authorities were apprised of their approach to-day and determined to keep them moving on. They were yesterday turned out of Hamilton as likely to become charges on the city. Two black bears accompany the party. Calneville residents to-day supplied them with rations.

American Publishers Denounce Follette

Toastmaster at Banquet Considers Wisconsin Senator's Speech Foolish, Wicked and Untruthful—Tried to Slate Newspapers and Curry Favor of Magazines.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—The dinner of the Periodical Publishers' Association was marked by a tart denunciation of Senator La Follette, a presidential aspirant, by Don C. Setts of the American newspaper publishers.

Senator La Follette began his speech near midnight and spoke for nearly two hours. The more than 500 diners were visibly wearied by the long drawn out remarks of the Wisconsin senator and towards the close frequently interrupted him. Much of his speech was devoted to the money power and an attack upon the sincerity of the newspaper press of the country.

When he had finished, Toastmaster Setts said: "I shall not attempt, nor have I the time, to come to the defense of the newspapers of the country which have just been foolishly, wickedly and untruthfully assailed."

Senator La Follette made no sign of hearing the caustic remark which was uttered in a half angry tone. Today in an interview, Mr. Setts said: "Last night's dinner, during which we thought we would 'josh' the statesman, ended in a calamity. It was a tragedy for Senator La Follette's hopes. He has simply wiped himself off the map. Undoubtedly he came to Philadelphia to make the address of his life, and when it developed into an infamous slander of the newspapers and a wallowing, sycofanatic praise of the magazine, he realized that the man had overstepped his mark. In my mind the senator, not knowing the relationship between the magazine and the newspapers, came to the dinner to attack the latter and to curry favor with the magazine publishers."

Must Be Quick Action To Curb Money Trust

W. J. Bryan in The Commoner Says If Democrats Fail They Must Abandon Pretense of Antagonism to System.

W. J. Bryan in The Commoner: Desperate efforts are now being made by the agents of the money trust to prevent the proposed investigation of that trust by the Democratic house of representatives. Representative Robert L. Henry, who has led the fight in this investigation has in his possession documentary evidence showing the extraordinary way in which the money trust magnates exert their power, shutting off the sources of money accommodations not only in this country, but in foreign financial markets. Messrs. Underwood, Littleton and other false leaders have objected to this investigation. If the Democratic party fails the people in this crisis, it must abandon all pretense of antagonism to the trust system. With the greatest of all the trusts now running to cover before the patriotic assaults of Democrats like Robert L. Henry, it would be disastrous for Democrats to refuse to give the strongest sort of encouragement to the men who are trying to hold the Democratic house of representatives true to the promise made by the Democratic party. Let Democrats everywhere wire their congressmen to support Mr. Henry in the money trust investigation.

Kaiser Wants to Be Friends With U. S.

Plans to Send a Squadron of German Warships to Visit United States—Cinnaught's Visit to New York is Criticized.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—To improve relations between Germany and the United States has become a fixed purpose of Emperor William. In all probability the near future will witness striking proofs of his pro-American policy. He considers a better status with America not second to a better status with England.

German journals point out that the plan to send to American waters a squadron under Prince Albert in no sense due to the recent visit of the Duke of Connaught to Washington. They do not assert, on the contrary, that the Duke's trip, "described as a social incident in the affairs of the Reich," was really brought about because the London foreign office had heard of the Berlin proposals and was "designed to forestall these by a coup cleverly covered by a play upon words."

Whatever the foundation for such statements or for denials of them, it is a noteworthy fact that during the eight weeks' campaign for the election of the Reichstag, Dr. Von Bethmann-Schliwig, the Chancellor, was severely arraigned by National Liberals, Catholics and Socialists for failing to rid the American mind of suspicions of anti-American designs on the part of a section of German public men.

PRIEST ADVISED GIRL BUT WILL NOT EXPLAIN

Rev. J. J. Pappilon Refuses to Give Information to Judge at Police Court Enquiry.

Family Prefers Death Rather Than Suffering

Father Employs Various Methods in Slaying Whole Family Who Suffered From Tuberculosis.

APPLETON, Wis., Feb. 3.—It was the belief that sudden death was preferable to long suffering from tuberculosis which caused William Mathland to kill three members of his family and then commit suicide on his father's farm near Binghamton.

During the last few years five members of the Mathland family have died from tuberculosis. All the victims of the tragedy were afflicted with the disease.

"We have been dying piecemeal for the last few years," Mathland said, "I believe it would be a good thing if we could end this agony at once, all dying to-day. I believe I'll get some carbolic acid and kill the whole bunch."

But he could not obtain the acid, so he changed his plan. While George, aged 13, was at school, William, then 18, was at home, and he shot off the father's head. Dora, who is supposed to have been on a couch, was slaked across the throat with a razor. The body of John was found in a room; his throat was cut. Then William cut his own throat.
