Moved by Mr. G. T. Colwell, seconded by Mr. W. Woodman :

That this meeting returns its sincere thanks to the English Conference for the valuable accession to our ministerial staff, which they have kindly sent us during the year, in the persons of the brethren WEBBER, NEWCOMBE, and HEYSETT; and also devoutly acknowledge the gracious Providence of God in preserving these brethren, with Mrs. Webber and child, during the perils of their journey, and bringing them in safety to their destination, where, through the divine blessing, their labors have already resulted in good. And we further hope to have the number increased by at least three additional Missionaries the coming year.
