Tener May Retire.

Although he has made no official announcement of his retirement from baseball, President John K. Tener, of the National League, said on Monday after a meeting of the league's board of directors that he would not be a candidate for re-election in December. He refused further to discuss the matter.

It was while he was governor of Pennsylvania in 1913 that Mr. Tener was elected president of the National League. He did not serve actively as the league's head until the expiration of his term, Secretary Treasurer John A. Heydler doing the active work. President Tener was elected for a term of four years, which will expire in December.

Denies He Retired.

Boston, June 20—Baltimore and Rochester, yesterday denied that he had enlisted in the naval reserve. "I have not enlisted yet," Maranville said, "though I have been thinking about it. Probably I will not join until October, after the season is over, but I'd like to go in the naval reserve if I'm not called out first."

The statement that Maranville enlisted was made by a friend of the shortstop on Tuesday night.

Beavers vs. Yankees.

Boston, June 20—The Boston National and the New York American baseball teams will play an exhibition game in Jersey City, N. J., on next Sunday. The president of each league will assign one umpire.

Beavers Win.

Last evening in the East End league of the Boys' Club, the Beavers trimmed the Alerts by a score of six to four. The batteries were: For the Beavers, Appleby and Seord; for the Alerts, Leenhan and Doherty.

On Tuesday evening the Cubs won their first game from the Alerts by a score of five to nothing.

RING

No Match for Leonard

Johnny Nelson, a Philadelphia boxer who was imported to New York from that city for the purpose of giving boxing enthusiasts a chance to see the new world's lightweight champion, Benny Leonard, in action, will go back to his Quakertown home convinced that Leonard is a champion. On Monday night at the Harlem S. C., Nelson did his best to make a showing against Leonard, but the Philadelphia's best wasn't good enough, and referee Billy McKel-

Farland used his discretionary powers in the third round to save Nelson from

When the referee interfered and with the aid of Leonard assisted the Philadelphia boxer to his corner, Nelson had been knocked to the floor of the ring five times. The first knockdown of the bout came in the second session, when Leonard sent his heavier opponent over with a right to the jaw. Nelson remained down to the count of nine, and, regaining his feet wearily, managed to stick the round out. About the middle of the third chapter Leonard landed his left hook with force to Nelson's chin, and the latter took a count of three.

The third time with a series of right and left hand blows to the face, head and jaw. Nelson doggedly got to his feet from a third knockdown as Referee McFarland tolled off nine. Leonard meant while looking to the Philadelphia's seconds to admit defeat. They didn't, however, and as he came erect again Nelson was met with a fusillade of varied blows which made him collapse in Leonard's corner to be assisted to his feet when the referee counted Leonard by 7-14 pounds, the Philadelphia coming into the ring at 141 pounds. His advantage in weight was no aid to him, however, for the shifty Leonard clearly outlasted him and won in one-sided fashion.

Two records were broken in Ottawa on Saturday. One was the track mark for the mile and twenty yards and the other the mark for the Duke of Connaught Cup Handicap.

When H. G. Bedwell's Athens ran the mile and twenty yards in 1:42-4-5 to win the sixth race he clipped 11-5 seconds off the mark of 1:44 made by the four year old Cogs, August 26, 1915, and by Lady Buttery, August 26, 1915, of the same year.

The other record broken was by Opera Glass when he ran the mile in the feature event in 1:40-2-5, he smashed the mark for the race made by Thornhill last year. The track record for the mile is held by Grumpy, who made a new mark last year when he ran the distance in 1:39-4-5.

ART SPENCER WINS

HALF-MILE HONORS

Toronto Youth Can Hardly Be

Beaten Now for Cycling Championship

Newark, N. J., June 18—Arthur Spencer practically clinched the cycling championship of America at the Velodrome here yesterday afternoon, when before 12,000 fans the popular Toronto youngster won the half-mile national championship race. It is now almost an impossibility for Spencer to be beaten out. There have been three championship races run to date, and Spencer has won them all. There are three more to be contested and should he win just one of these he cannot be beaten out for the championship, the title which Frank Kramer, of West Orange, has held for the past sixteen years.

Arthur has fifteen points, while Alfred Goulet and Bob Spears, who are tied for second place, have five points each. Frank Kramer and Francisco Verri are tied with three points apiece. Arthur defeated Bob Spears in the race to decide first and second place in a comparatively easy manner, while Goulet just edged third and fourth honors. Verri beat Kramer out in the semi-finals, but in the grand semi-final Arthur raced against Verri but they all look alike to the "Kid," as his brother, Willie, calls him, and Art beat the Italian Sprinter easily. It was a rather unlucky day for Willie Spencer, who drew his brother to race against him in the semi-final, and, of course, Arthur won.

The fans in Newark worship Arthur, and a crowd of some 200 admirers followed him from the track.

Walking Record

New York A. C. Pedestrian Wins

15 Mile in 2:07; Was Keenly

Contested

Eddie Rens of the New York A. C., former seven-mile national walking champion, the other day won the fifteen mile patriotic walk held in place of the metropolitan championship event at Macomb's Dam Park, under the auspices of the Walkers' Club of America, in the new American record time of 2:07 17-8-5, beating out a field of thirty other contestants in one of the most spectacular walking competitions over this distance ever held. The best previous American mark for the distance is 2:14-4-4, made by W. O'Keefe at Williamsburg, L. I., in 1900.

In scoring his victory the speedy Winged Foot pedestrian showed William Plant of the Long Island A. C., present metropolitan one-mile champion, the way to the tape, after the latter had appeared to be assured of victory.

Throughout the race, the honors were divided among Rens, Plant and William J. Macfadden, New York A. C. For the first five miles of the journey, Macfadden and Plant alternated at leading, and when the five-mile post was reached, Macfadden was in the van by about ten yards, while Plant came next, about three yards ahead of Rens. The time for this stage of the race was 48:22-8-5.

The lead continued to alternate between this trio for the following five miles until at the tenth mile Rens had forged to the leading position, closely followed by Plant and Macfadden, the time being 1:23:09. Entering the thirteenth mile, Plant went to the lead and immediately began to draw away from his rivals. At one stage of the race, he had worked up an advantage of about three-quarters of a lap on Rens, who was fighting hard in second position. Macfadden gradually falling behind from the stiff pace. Rens, however, employing a faster style of locomotion than that used by Plant, gradually cut down the Long Island A. C. walker's advantage in the closing laps. As the leaders were entering the stretch the Winged Foot star came through with a cyclonic finish in which he passed Plant about 100 yards away from the finish line, to win the honors by a matter of about thirty yards. Plant's time was 2:17:38-4-5, while Macfadden, finishing third, was almost a lap behind in 2:09:55.

Plant showed the effects of the terrific strain he had undergone during the race, when the event was completed, for he staggered blindly across the finishing line.

Hard Hitting

In St. Peter's Y.M.A. league last evening the Maples defeated the Thistles by a score of 10 to 7. The game was hard fought and was an interesting one to watch despite the high scoring. Errors were made by members of both teams, but nearly all were excusable as the fog was thick and at times the fielders could hardly see the ball after it was hit in the air. Doyle, Lenihan and B. Dever led the hard hitting troupe, having 1,000 per cent. for their evening's batting average. J. Doherty and Garvin also hit well and contributed to the victory for the Maples. Both Milag and Hansen were absent from the Thistles' line-up as the result of injuries sustained in Tuesday evening's game against the Shamrocks.
