And his name we often call,
But there's nothing left to answer
But his photo on the wall.

His nobly fell at duty's call,
He died to save us, one and all,
Far from his home he fighting fell
For that dear home he loved so well;
He slid his part; his life he gave;
His resting place is a soldier's grave.

Backward Children Often Can't See Well

Many a child is called "stupid" and a dunce, when the whole trouble is that the youngster can't see the blackboard or printed page clearly. Given the right glasses, the stupid child usually becomes one of the best pupils.

The child can't tell, nor can you, the condition of the eyes. But our optometrist can. It is a good thing for the child, and for you, to have an examination of the eyes made at Sharpe's at the beginning of the school
