

EX-M.P. MAKES TOUR AS TRAMP

Gets First-Hand Information of Conditions in Work-houses

Was Recognized Only Once—Will Report to Ministry of Health

OXFORD, England, Nov. 6.—In order to obtain first-hand experience of life in the casual ward of a work-house, Frank Gray, formerly member of Parliament for Oxford City and Junior Liberal Whip, has made a hundred miles' tramp through the county disguised as a vagabond. Attired in ragged clothes very much the worse for wear, and with a growth of beard on chin, he made an excellent tramp, and passed unrecognized among workhouse officials to whom he was personally known. In all he covered 100 miles and slept at seven workhouses, his purpose being to gain personal knowledge for a book he is writing called "Streets of Humanity."

Discussing his adventures Mr. Gray said that he had stayed in the casual wards at Henley, Thame, Headington, Oxford, Bleicester, Banbury and Woodstock, and was only recognized once.

the community, calls for comment. "Some of the methods of dealing with tramps and their accommodation makes certain of the casual wards incubators and distributing agencies of disease. "There are not more than 5 per cent. of genuine unemployed frequenting the casual wards. The genuine unemployed on trek do not go to the wards at all, but to places like doss houses, Church Army homes (and the like)." The saddest feature, he added, was that nearly every casual ward he went to contained three or four youths embarking upon a career of vagrancy and crime. Mr. Gray is to send remittances to the various institutions he visited to cover the cost of his keep. He is going to make a report to the Minister of Health.

Quebec Apples Are Placed On Display

MONTREAL, Nov. 5.—Fifty thousand apples, all grown in the Province of Quebec, are on display at the Windsor Hotel in the first exhibition arranged by the Pomological and Fruit Growing Society of the Province of Quebec. The exhibition was opened last night, by Hon. J. E. Caron, Provincial Minister of Agriculture, who declared that the exhibition clearly showed that Quebec was a great apple growing country.
