WE EXPLAINED

in a previous "ad." that carpenters, painters, etc. were coming to make some alterations in our King street store. They want to get to work as soon as possible, and we want to have less stock to move around, so we started our clearance sale somewhat early.
All the odd lots, samples, and lines we are discontinuing have been placed on sale at prices so low that customers have bought as many as six and seven pairs.
Did you get any? Then come at once.

K. OF C. THEATRICALS PROMISE GREAT HIT

My Friend From India And The Best-Yet Specialties — Opera House Thursday, Friday, Saturday

What has been without a doubt one of the greatest laughter-making vehicles ever sent on the road is to be produced at the Opera House on Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday afternoon of this week under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, who have been rehearsing "My Friend From India" for some time.
It is a series of laughs, grins and giggles, chiefly laughs and honest, clean, whole-hearted ones at that. The perplexing situations, crisp, sparkling dialogue and laughable complications assure one of the most jolly times spent at a theatrical production this season.

The cast of characters is in capable hands and the comedy is being well attended to, while a large chorus of young ladies and gentlemen will be seen and heard in specialties which for an amateur production will bid fair to excel any others seen in this city. The specialties are the latest hits of New York, and are certain to please.

Tickets may be exchanged at the Opera House today, and as the attendance promises to be large, it is advisable to exchange tickets at once.

sity in his capital.

HE WAS BARRED

He was young, he was a Highlander, and he was in the police force. Some of his friends tried to persuade him to join the pipers' band, where he would have higher duties and better pay.
"But I canna read a note o' music," demurred he at first.

Soon, however, his scruples were overruled, and he appeared before the musical director, to whom he confided reluctantly that he knew very little music, and nothing at all of instrument playing.

"Well," said the conductor, in despair,
"can you tell me exactly how many beasts there are in a hat?"

"No, I canna, sir," replied the musical ignoramus; "but"—eagerly—"I can tell you just how many hairs there are in a beet!"

A TIMELY ONE.

Joseph Editor, addressing the Little Falls strickers, cracked a timely joke.
"Let us emulate the firmness of the millionaire class," he said. "Our millionaires, you know, swear off at the beginning of each year, and infallibly keep their pledges."

"Aw, what do they swear off?" a striker incredulously demanded.

"They swear off their personal property tax!" was the reply.
