WHITE GIFT SUNDAY

Observation in Many of the City Sunday Schools—Generous Offerings.

Yesterday was "White Gift Sunday" in some of the Sunday schools of the city when pupils brought gifts for the less fortunate children of the city.

In St. David's church, the superintendent, Robert Reid presided and Miss P. MacGowan was at the organ. A chorus of thirty voices under the leadership of R. C. Crutcher sang "On the Birthday of the King." Miss K. Shaw gave an appropriate reading. Mrs. Magee's class recited a portion of the scriptures and Mrs. Hugh Miller sang "Silent Night." Prayer was offered by Rev. George Scott and Miss E. Campbell gave a reading. The lesson was taken from Luke 12:1-5. The pastor, Rev. Hugh Miller, the pastor, gave a short address and pronounced the benediction. A special collection taken amounted to $82 and the regular collection was $81. The attendance and the gifts constituted a record.

At Knox church Sunday school the scholars were all assembled together and there were about 180 present. F. A. Cunningham, the superintendent, led the opening devotional exercises and Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, the minister offered prayer. The second chapter of Luke was read responsively and the hymns sung were the favorite hymns of Christmas time. When the presentation of gifts took place the superintendent first placed gifts sent by a little child too small to come, his own son, and then commencing with the primary grade the scholars filed up to put their gifts upon the table prepared to receive them. The smaller children gave toys and the older pupils gave groceries and, when the large group was completed, Mr. Legate offered the prayer of dedication. Following the hymn "Can a Little Child Like Me," Mr. Legate gave a short address explaining the purpose of the White Gift observance and quoting "In as much as ye have done it unto the least of mine and lowest ye have done it unto Me."

Tabernacle.
At the Tabernacle Baptist church, the superintendent, Peter C. Murray, was in charge and the weather, nearly large in spite of the weather. Nearly 200 pupils were present. No special exercises were arranged during the week and on Friday the Christmas baskets will be packed. At the close of the Sunday school session the executive and officers met to make arrangements for the Christmas tree and entertainment for the school later on.

Centenary.
At the White Gift exercises in Centenary Methodist Sunday school there was a record attendance of 276 scholars and more than 150 visitors also attended.

All Prize Packets

The prettiest packages put up by the leading Chocolate makers of Canada and the States were picked out and put aside for our patrons. And so we have the greatest all-star display ever brought together in St. John. On both sides from end to end the store is en fête with several hundred individual gift boxes of the best. 60c gives you a fair start and there is hardly a limit to what you can do here according to your preference for these palate charmers:

Foss,
Neilson,
Liggett,
Moir,
Corona,
Canong,
Billie Burke,
Sweetest Maid,
Dorothy Kingston.

tended. James E. Arthur, the superintendent, presided and a pleasing programme was given. Following an orchestra selection, there were short devotional exercises, when prayer was offered by the pastor, Rev. R. G. Fulton, and the junior department chanted the Lord's Prayer. For the singing of the hymn "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was given by Lillian Thoms and Jack Gunn, and the primary class for its exercise presented "Away on a Manger."

After another hymn, the exercise "When the Star Shone," was admirably presented. Those taking part were as follows:—When the Star Shone: Frances Elkin, Christmas Angel; Gordon Black, trumpeter; Christmas tree children, Jack Gunn, Cyril Parfitt, Muriel Langstroth, Harold Goodwin, Vivian, Colpitts, Jean Jenkins; friends, Joseph Likely, William Hayward, Gairdie Gunn, Norma Chamberlain, Jean Humphrey, Constance McLaughlin, workers, Mary Mitchell, Gertrude Hughes, Helen McLaughlin, Edward Whitaker, Campbell Creighton.

Christmas Gifts ---Men's

It's puzzle, puzzle, puzzle—think, think, think—my what a worry Christmas is when you find it hard to decide what to buy. One good way to smooth out the wrinkles of perplexity, if you're buying for a man, is to come to Gilmour's, where you'll find an excellent collection of suitable gifts.

Articles of Men's Furnishings are always in good taste and well-combed. Neckwear here in abundance variety and price to suit most any purse, 50 cents to $8. Fine Shirts, silk, tricolour, etc., $4.50 to $10; other shirts, $2.50 to $4. A very large variety of pattern advantageously displayed, so that you see a wide range at a glance.

Many other articles appropriate for gifts including Tuxedos, Tuxedo and Full Dress Suits, smart semi-formal suits in Blues and Fendit Stripes; Winter and Spring Overcoats and Gaudines.

A word—you'll find shopping in the mornings greatly to your advantage.

Robbers Hold Up a Chicago Diamond Merchant, Ransack His Safe.

Chicago, Dec. 18.—Fourteen trays of unset diamonds and gold and platinum mountings valued at $100,000, were stolen by two robbers who held up J. E. Harrison, a diamond merchant, in a downtown office building.

The robbers got in by pretending they wanted to buy a diamond, then held up Harrison and ransacked his safe.
