

that this institution, from its location and surroundings, is entitled to the special sympathy of the Church in these Western Provinces, and we wish it every success in its efforts to impart a liberal education to the youth of Quebec.

DEMILL LADIES' COLLEGE.

The Rev. President Demill addressed the Conference, whereupon moved by Rev. J. W. Totten, seconded by Rev. S. A. Duprau, and

Resolved,—That having heard from Rev. A. B. Demill, as to his work in Oshawa and Toronto in behalf of young ladies and little girls, we express our gratification at his success, and pray that he may long live to continue the work so auspiciously begun, and we heartily commend his work to our people.

MISSIONARY INTERESTS AND RESOLUTIONS THEREUPON.

Mrs. J. C. Wilson was introduced to the Conference, and in a beautiful address presented the interests of the Woman's Missionary Society, whereupon it was moved by Rev. C. T. Cocking, seconded by Rev. T. M. Campbell, and

Resolved,—That we, the members of this Conference, have listened with great interest to the eminently practical, instructive and inspiring address of Mrs. Wilson; the representative of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, and beg to assure her and the society she represents that we are in hearty sympathy with their noble work, and feel deeply thankful to Almighty God that He has crowned their efforts, both in this Dominion and in the foreign field, with such abundant success, and that we shall ever endeavor, in the various spheres in which we move, to aid them in their operations.

The Rev. A. E. Sanderson addressed the Conference, asking for the prayerful and financial support by the Church of the Volunteer Students' Movement, whereupon it was moved by Rev. E. N. Baker, M.A., B.D., seconded by Rev. C. W. Watch, and

Resolved,—That, having heard the address of the Rev. A. E. Sanderson on the Volunteer Students' Movement, we express our thanks to God for raising up these noble bands of young men and women, and pledge as a Conference our sympathy, prayers and help to aid its success.

Dr. Kobayashi, late of Tokyo, Japan, read to the Conference a paper urging that greater efforts be made in the scattering of Christian literature in Japan, believing that it will greatly aid in the evangelization of the country, whereupon it was moved by Rev. T. M. Campbell, seconded by E. T. Crowle, Ph.D., and

Resolved,—That we have listened with profound pleasure to the address of our dear Bro. Kobayashi, of Japan, and rejoice that the fruit of missionary work in that interesting country is seen and felt in the coming native ministry of that country, of which our Brother is such an illustrious and devoted example. We rejoice in his intense interest in the evangelization of his own country, and pray that God may spare his life and health, and keep him faithful to the work to which he has consecrated himself.
