

EMPEROR NICHOLAS PRACTICALLY A PRISONER Never Leaves Grounds Surrounding Palace-- Trepoff Redoubles Precautions to Guard Life of the Czar.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—An official denial is given of the report that the Emperor and court are leaving Peterhof and returning to Tsarskoe-Selo owing to the discovery of a revolutionary plot among the palace servants.

The report is officially accounted for by rumors following the retirement of General Plesko, the commander at Peterhof, and the appointment of Col. Lermontoff, commander of the Imperial regiment of Ulians, as his successor.

The Emperor is allowed within the walls surrounding the grounds of the small palace, where the Imperial family resides, without a permit.

Secret Police Be Hindered, in civilian clothes, through the parks and streets. The Emperor never drives out beyond the grounds of the small palace, and the members of the court are practically prisoners within its walls.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The Slavov to-day says that the troubles in the army have routed the reactionary Government and have precipitated a definite decision not only to dissolve parliament, but to dismiss the Goremeykin cabinet, and that in the meantime the Emperor has directed his ministers to reply to all interpellations in parliament.

Count Witte, from his self-imposed exile abroad, has dispatched several urgent telegrams, emphasizing the necessity of putting a stop to the anti-Jewish outbreak, the impression of which on the outside world has socially affected Russia's credit.

THIEF CONVICTED. Robbed Companion of Monday and Was Sentenced on Thursday.

Rosland, B. C., June 28.—On Monday at Trail Z. Huohy, a Galician, had $300 in bank bills and a savings bank book with several hundred dollars to his credit stolen from his cabin.

Winnipeg, June 28.—Four by-laws submitted to the ratepayers to-day providing respectively for a Sunday car service, consisting of cycle rickshaws, developing plant at a cost of $3,700,000; the institution of a board of control and giving $200,000 for new schools were passed with good majorities.

Winnipeg, June 28.—Rev. Abbe Got, a French priest, has arrived here en route to northern wilds in search of his brother, Rev. Father Noel Got, a Roman Catholic missionary, who left Vancouver for the Yukon six months ago, and of whom nothing has since been heard.

Port Arthur, Ont., June 28.—Louis C. Riox, arrested for throwing a stone at a Chinese man on the White river, a few days ago, was this morning sentenced to three and a half years' imprisonment in Kingston penitentiary.

Toronto, June 28.—Dr. Hucho, representative of the department of agriculture of the German government, was at the parliament buildings yesterday obtaining general information and statistics of the farming industry of Ontario. Dr. Hucho says he has travelled over a considerable part of the globe and finds Canada the best agricultural country he has yet seen.

Montreal, June 28.—Work on the construction of the MacDonald Agricultural College at St. Anne de Bellevue has come to a sudden stop. The laborers, employed a few days ago demanding an increase in pay from $1.05 per day to $2.25.

London, Ont., June 28.—The insurance commission opened its inquiry in London yesterday.

Henley, June 28.—The Argonaut crew of Toronto, went over the full course to-night under almost perfect weather conditions.

Grand Forks, June 28.—Peter McRae, a pioneer contractor, has just arrived here from Coleman, Alberta, where he has been employed by the International Coal Company.

IMPROVED IN FAVOR OF SUNDAY CARS. BY-LAWS PASSED WITH GOOD MAJORITIES.

Power Developing Plant to be Installed by City—Revelation at Toronto Civic Inquiry.

Winnipeg, June 28.—Four by-laws submitted to the ratepayers to-day providing respectively for a Sunday car service, consisting of cycle rickshaws, developing plant at a cost of $3,700,000; the institution of a board of control and giving $200,000 for new schools were passed with good majorities.

Winnipeg, June 28.—The Anglican synod of Rupert's Land to-day decided to establish a church party to serve the west.

Toronto, June 28.—The heavy commissions paid to architects in civic contracts by contractors was a feature of the civic inquiry this morning.

Montreal, June 28.—With a view of giving poor children of the city an outing during the hot months of summer, the management of the Montreal street railway announced to-day that on two mornings of each week in July and August children would be given a free trolley drive over the company's system and around the two mountains on the Park and Island system.

Montreal, June 28.—Dr. Robert Craik, dean of the medical faculty of McGill University, died on Monday, aged 77. He was a native of Montreal.

Nelson, June 28.—A six-drill compressor has been ordered from the Jenks Machine Company for the La Planta mine.

London, Ont., June 28.—The insurance commission opened its inquiry in London yesterday.

Grand Forks, June 28.—Peter McRae, a pioneer contractor, has just arrived here from Coleman, Alberta, where he has been employed by the International Coal Company.

HELD WITHOUT BAIL. Thaw Sent to Tombs After Coroner's Jury Returned Verdict.

New York, June 28.—Harry Kendall Thaw was indicted to-day for murder in the first degree for the killing of Stanford White Monday night on Madison Square roof garden. His wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, appeared as a witness before the grand jury, but begged to be excused from giving testimony. She was treated with every consideration by Assistant District Attorney Garvan and by the jury, who did not insist that she should answer questions.

The grand jury's consideration of the case was brief and followed a perfunctory inquest before a coroner's jury, which heard the testimony of several eye witnesses to the tragedy and rendered a formal verdict that White's death had been caused by Thaw.

The proceedings lasted but a few moments, during which the prisoner appeared to be cool and collected. While waiting his turn for arraignment, several prisoners, preceding him, he stood chatting with a policeman.

Standford White was buried to-day with simple ceremony at St. James, L. I. The life of the architect was proclaimed to be not two years. He was found to be suffering from Bright's disease, from intemperance, and from fatty degeneration of the liver.

Man Found Wounded in Street Died After Being Removed to Hospital.

New York, June 28.—The police found another mystery on their hands early to-day to add to the chapter of New York murders.

Thomas Petto was found about 2 o'clock this morning with a pistol wound in his back, lying on the sidewalk on Forsyth street, one of the most densely populated sections of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth Attended Levee at Buckingham Palace.

London, June 28.—To-day's court was made notable by the number of presentations. The royal circle was numerous, and the procession of the King, Queen and others of state was exceptionally brilliant.

DEVELOPMENTS IN WHITE MURDER CASE.

Trials of Harry Thaw May Not Take Place Until October—Detectives Busy.

New York, June 28.—Not guilty was the plea personally made by Harry Kendall Thaw when arraigned to-day on the charge of murder before Justice Cowling in the supreme court.

The proceedings lasted but a few moments, during which the prisoner appeared to be cool and collected. While waiting his turn for arraignment, several prisoners, preceding him, he stood chatting with a policeman.

Every effort will be made to secure evidence of the former life of White and his pursuit of Mrs. Thaw after her marriage. There is hardly any possibility that the trial can take place before October.

Her Whole Life History, especially that portion pertaining to her acquaintance with White prior to her marriage. As a result of this conference it was decided that former Governor Frank S. Black will take a leading part in the defence.

Scores of detectives are now delving into this subject in behalf of the prosecution and defence, and fresh developments are of almost hourly occurrence.

Among the many witnesses examined at the district attorney's office were Thomas McCaleb, a Californian who was with the Thaws at dinner in the Cafe Martin on the evening of the tragedy, and Truxton Beal, who was with Mr. White and his party in the restaurant at the same time.

Importance to the Defence. This man, whose name is withheld, is said to be an old friend of Thaw, and will testify that he talked on Monday night on the roof garden with Thaw, who appeared to be normal in his demeanor and entirely at ease.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth Attended Levee at Buckingham Palace.

London, June 28.—To-day's court was made notable by the number of presentations. The royal circle was numerous, and the procession of the King, Queen and others of state was exceptionally brilliant.

MR. GARVIN TO-DAY WAS NELLIE LEAH. Mr. White was astonished some months ago to find that.

Detectives Were Following Him wherever he went. At first he had some doubts whether the men were really dogging his footsteps or whether it was a mere accident that the same faces appeared when he left his office, his home or his club at morning, noon and night.

The person he employed discovered that the other detective was reporting to Thaw. In this way Mr. White was able to obtain ample warning that the wealthy young man from Pittsburgh suspected him and was preparing some unpleasant surprises.

Every effort will be made to secure evidence of the former life of White and his pursuit of Mrs. Thaw after her marriage. There is hardly any possibility that the trial can take place before October.

Scores of detectives are now delving into this subject in behalf of the prosecution and defence, and fresh developments are of almost hourly occurrence.

Among the many witnesses examined at the district attorney's office were Thomas McCaleb, a Californian who was with the Thaws at dinner in the Cafe Martin on the evening of the tragedy, and Truxton Beal, who was with Mr. White and his party in the restaurant at the same time.

Importance to the Defence. This man, whose name is withheld, is said to be an old friend of Thaw, and will testify that he talked on Monday night on the roof garden with Thaw, who appeared to be normal in his demeanor and entirely at ease.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth Attended Levee at Buckingham Palace.

London, June 28.—To-day's court was made notable by the number of presentations. The royal circle was numerous, and the procession of the King, Queen and others of state was exceptionally brilliant.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—Late last night it was reported that serious disorders had broken out in the garrison of Osevie, one of the great fortresses defending the Polish frontier, against German invasion.

St. Petersburg, June 30, 3:30 a.m.—Emperor Nicholas, according to reliable information which has reached the Associated Press, summoned the Probrajensky regiment before the Imperial palace at Peterhof yesterday and in a sarcastic address expressed his regret at their disloyalty in declaring sympathy with the radical programme of parliament.