STARTLING EVIDENCE IN

BOGUS BALLOT BOX CASE

Alleged Confession of P. A. Lott Implicate

Liberal Candidates, and Stratton,

Vance and Others.

Mr. Corby and himself that he had six bogus ballot boxes in his possession, the same having been obtained from a party in Kingston. B. O. Lott had given his brother, P. A. Lott, a letter of introduction to Mr. Shibley, who he was told, was the liberal candidate in Frontenac, and that the party had arranged matters with him, so that the boxes, thirteen in number, were shipped from Prescott to Central Ontario lungtion as hee hives.

Eight letters and cards were filed as exhibits, there being three alleged to have been written by B. Lott. On these letters the prosecution appear to base their case.

B. O. Lott said that the bogus ballot boxes, thirteen in number, were shipped from Prescott to Central Ontario elections, but his brother, through a party named Vance, in Toronto, had got on to them, and had determined to get some to use in West
