MISS NIXON TO SPEAK IN ST. JOHN

Mon. W. J. Hanna, Representative To Give Address on Economy Versus Food Waste.

A splendid convention of Household Science Teachers, has just come to class at Sackville, N. B. From July 8th to 12th, meetings were held, lectures and demonstrations given which will be of the greatest value. There were thirty teachers present and the St. John ladies speak with the highest enthusiasm of the valuable information they received.

Miss Nixon, who is representative Hon. W. J. Hanna, Canada's Food controller, was the chief speaker. She has been in touch with all the latest and best ideas of Conservation. Food economy and avoidance of waste. These ideas are very practical as shown in the demonstrations of canning, some of the articles canned were salmon, strawberries, lima beans, greens and many other vegetables. Methods of drying apples were taught so that waste falls and the early autumn apples can be utilized. Sailing that old-fashioned method of preserving was demonstrated and the usefulness pointed out.

The meetings were in charge of P. Peacock, Director of Manual Training and Household Science for New Brunswick. Most excellent talks were given by Miss Jean Peacock who has recently returned from Columbia University. Miss Kate Bartlett was among the St. John teachers in attendance. Miss Gladys Borden of Sackville rendered valuable assistance in procuring materials for demonstrations.

Miss Nixon has arranged to speak in St. John this week under the auspices of the Young Women's Patriotic Association. The meeting will be held in the High School Assembly Hall by consent of the Board of School Trustees. Mayor Hayes is to be chairman and all Patriotic Societies are to be invited to attend.

The plan of interesting the girls of the service of Food, has been carefully worked out. Boys were given work on the farms but before this there seemed no opportunity for girls to help in the most important work of economy and prevention of waste. Clubs are being formed all over the Province now called Efficiency Clubs and with the hints given by trained workers women are shown how to carry out this deeply patriotic duty.

Jauntily Titled is Miss Marjorie's Hat. The ladies work is done with velvet ribbons while pale blue is the crossed sash and bow; pink roses cluster every here and there. The hat itself is lighthearted.

ROTHESAY RED CROSS.

Splendid Answer to French Appeal. Nearly six hundred dollars will be the answer of the residents of Rothesay, Fairville, Renfrew and Goudale Point to the appeal for French wounded. When it is realized that the place has already contributed most generously to the Red Cross fund, the collected and donated is a very creditable one.

The Tag Day which was so great a success was in charge of a committee from the Rothesay Red Cross Society, consisting of Mrs. Fred Daniel, Miss Alice Davidson, Miss Sophie Robertson and Miss Frances Allison. They were ably assisted by a number of young ladies. Several motors were loaned during the day and everything was well organized. Four members of the Y. W. P. A. did the collecting in Renfrew sending in $38 from there. Jack Blair was the collector for Goudale Point. The boxes used were decorated with red, white and blue ribbon and armlets with "Help France" in the French language on them, were worn by the young ladies. Several members of the Bank of N. A. staff came out from town and counted the returns amounting to $360.

The Red Cross Society of Rothesay at its last meeting voted $100 for this appeal.

Saturday at the Tennis Tea a number of the ladies, several of whom are summer residents of Rothesay, arranged a party sale and candy table in connection with the usual Saturday afternoon Tennis Tea. One hundred dollars rewarded their efforts, which money is to be added to the Tennis Fund.

Mrs. Leonard Tilley and Mrs. Royden Thomson were the ladies in charge assisted by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Walter Foster, Mrs. L. W. Barker and Mrs. J. M. Robinson. Mrs. Daniel Mullin looking after the decorating of the Club house. At the candy table were Mrs. John Sayre, Mrs. Jack Byles, Misses Doris Sayre, Lou Robinson and Edith Cudlip.

The Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Ganong made their first official appearance in Rothesay and his Honor accompanied by the Premier and Mrs. Foster, Lady Tilley president of the Provincial Red Cross, Mrs. John H. Thomson president of the Rothesay Red Cross Society and many St. John visitors were among those present.

This afternoon tea for which a small sum was charged was given by Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. Walter W. White and Mrs. Malcolm Mackay. A local tournament was held during the afternoon which was unfortunately interrupted by rain. Thirteen couples had entered and some close matches had been played. Mrs. Royden Thomson arranged the tournament.

BULLY FOR CY.

Cyrus Pettiford made brooms for a living, and Extra Hoskins kept a store in the town where both of them lived. One day Cy came in with a load of brooms, and then declaimed began.

"Extra," want to sell you these brooms."

"All right, Cy, I'll take them."

"I don't want any more store," continued Cy.

"After a thoughtful pause Extra said, 'I tell you what I'll do, Cy, I'll give you half cash and half trade.'"

Cy pulled a straw out of one of the brooms and looked at it as if for inspiration.

"I guess that'll be all right," he said, at last.

After Extra had put the brooms in their place in the store he said:

"Here's your money, Cy. Now, what do you want in trade?"

Cy's shrewd glance went over the miscellaneous stock of the store.

"Well, Extra," said he, "if it's all the same to you, I'll take brooms—Women's World for August."

London, July 14.—The official report from British headquarters in France tonight reads:

"Beyond the usual artillery activity on both sides nothing of importance occurred during the day."

"Bombing operations by our air-planes continued with success yesterday and during the preceding night. Fighting in the air took place throughout the day, in the course of which four hostile machines were brought down and ten others were driven down out of control. Another enemy air-planes was shot down within our lines by our anti-aircraft guns. Seven of our machines are missing."

SHEPHERD.

Rev. Mr. Weddall has assumed his pastorate of the Methodist church here and large congregations were present at the morning and evening services on Sunday. On each occasion the reverend gentleman gave very impressive and earnest discourses.

Sunday was very fine and a large number of motor parties from different parts spent the day at the seaside. Nearly all the summer cottages at Shepheard and the resorts in the vicinity are filled and guests are arriving daily at the Weldon. Among recent arrivals are the Misses Spear, Montreal, and Miss Gertrude Shawwood of Sussex.

The family of Mr. J. S. Magee, Moncton, are at their cottage, Pt. du Chene. Mrs. Teggart, Toronto, is a guest of Mrs. Geo. A. White, Main street.

TERRIBLY SICK WOMAN

Surgical Operation Thought Necessary, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her.

Madison, Wis.—"I was a terribly sick woman for over three years. I suffered with terrible pains in my back and was about to have an operation when a friend said to me, 'Before having that operation try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I let the operation wait, and my husband bought me the Vegetable Compound."

and it has made me a well woman and we have a lovely baby girl. We cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough, and I hope this letter will lead other suffering women to try it."—Mrs. BENJAMIN F. BLAKE, R. F. D. No. 5, Box 22, Madison, Wis.

There must be more than a hundred thousand women in this country who, like Mrs. Blake, have proven what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can do for weak and ailing women. Try it and see for yourself.

All women are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

OPERA HOUSE.

The crowds which lined the streets in front of the Opera House on Saturday evening might have caused a stranger to imagine some accident had happened but it was only the usual Saturday night throng waiting for admittance to the Opera House Vaudeville.

Singing characterized the programme of this week's bill as every act included some vocal selections. I did not see what I believe is the biggest novelty of the programme as I had to do a marathon for a suburban train but the rest of the programme I can describe.

Jamie Kelly is an Irishman who enters from what is supposed to be a tunnel under Broadway. He tells many Irish stories sings several Irish songs, one good one about "A subway to Ireland" and ends his act with a modern version of Kipling's "Young British Soldier" splendidly recited.

The whistling and singing of Hall and Wellington is tuneful and the imitations of various sounds cleverly executed.

The rural painting of this scene gives the correct atmosphere for the fishing boy and girl.

The McCarvers give a very lively act of songs, step dances and patter. The bright pink gown of the lady with its lacy flounces is attractive. This act opened the bill and got a very good reception.

A clever song yell rendered which did not get its meed of applause Saturday evening was that of Algy of the team of Jennings and Algy. Those of English descent never applaud English songs as do the Irish and Scotch people. "You're Spoofing Me" is the song referred to. This act is an excellent one bright and well dressed.

Gloria's Romance ended just in the most exciting place you could imagine. Poor Dick rendered a little too late. Miss Burke looks charming in several scenes in this episode.

CURTAIN FLICKERS.

Far Eastern Production. A production solely Australian, and which is heralded as being on a par with the best made American films, has been put out by Franklin Barrett, and is titled "Australia's Peril."

The production was made entirely in the Antipodes, and the players are Australians. Barrett has the distinction of being the first Australian producer to have his work screened at the Theatre Royal, Sydney.

A great many films fail to come up to the scratch.

Neva Gerber New Leading Lady. The Lynn F. Reynolds Company of Bluebird photoplays undergoes a change in the important position of leading lady. Myrtle Gonzales having completed her part of the work in "The Show Down," a feature lately produced on the West Coast, in Alice Hagan Rice's Story, "Mr. Opp," planned as Mr. Reynolds' next production, Neva Gerber will be the leading lady, with Arthur Hoyt leading man, and George Hernandez continuing as a featured member of the company.

Tortoise shell spectacles never made a motion picture author.

Edin Thanhouser prophesies great things of Gladys Leslie, who stars in a forthcoming Pathé Gold Reelers play. This is Miss Leslie's first appearance as a star, though as the vicar's youngest daughter in "The Vicar of Wakefield" her beauty made many persons ask, "Who is she?" Miss Leslie is called "the girl with the million dollar smile." Her picture is called "An Amateur Orphan."

In preparation for the production of Elsie Ferguson's first Artcraft picture an Arabian village has sprung up "somewhere in Jersey." Translating palm trees, camels and feet-footed horses are to be used. The feature is titled "Barbary Sheep."

Two Deaths and Rescue in "The Love That Lives."

In "The Love That Lives," completed by the Famous Players Studio, Pauline Frederick takes the role of a scrub-woman. To give her an education she suffers the attentions of a broker, though she is at the time the neglected wife of a drunkard.

"It's better to have loved and lost than have the picture play a frost!"

The "Ziegfeld Follies," this year's vintage, have stuck town and moved it away back. The public willingly paid five dollars a throw for first night seats and said the price was cheap.
