

STANDARD'S SPORTING SECTION

BASEBALL IN THE BIG LEAGUES

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

New York, 6; Chicago, 4.

At New York—30000000—4 3 2

Chicago, 4; Philadelphia, 1.

At Philadelphia—10000000—4 3 2

Philadelphia, 1; Boston, 2.

At Boston—20000000—4 3 2

Boston, 2; Washington, 1.

At Washington—10000000—4 3 2

Washington, 1; St. Louis, 0.

At St. Louis—10000000—4 3 2

St. Louis, 0; Cincinnati, 0.

At Cincinnati—10000000—4 3 2

Cincinnati, 0; Cleveland, 0.

At Cleveland—10000000—4 3 2

Cleveland, 0; Detroit, 0.

At Detroit—10000000—4 3 2

Detroit, 0; Milwaukee, 0.

At Milwaukee—10000000—4 3 2

Milwaukee, 0; St. Paul, 0.

At St. Paul—10000000—4 3 2

St. Paul, 0; Minneapolis, 0.

At Minneapolis—10000000—4 3 2

Minneapolis, 0; Kansas City, 0.

At Kansas City—10000000—4 3 2

Kansas City, 0; St. Louis, 0.

At St. Louis—10000000—4 3 2

St. Louis, 0; Cincinnati, 0.

At Cincinnati—10000000—4 3 2

Cincinnati, 0; Cleveland, 0.

At Cleveland—10000000—4 3 2

Cleveland, 0; Detroit, 0.

At Detroit—10000000—4 3 2

Detroit, 0; Milwaukee, 0.

At Milwaukee—10000000—4 3 2

Milwaukee, 0; St. Paul, 0.

At St. Paul—10000000—4 3 2

St. Paul, 0; Minneapolis, 0.

At Minneapolis—10000000—4 3 2

Minneapolis, 0; Kansas City, 0.

At Kansas City—10000000—4 3 2

Kansas City, 0; St. Louis, 0.

At St. Louis—10000000—4 3 2

St. Louis, 0; Cincinnati, 0.

At Cincinnati—10000000—4 3 2

Cincinnati, 0; Cleveland, 0.

At Cleveland—10000000—4 3 2

Cleveland, 0; Detroit, 0.

At Detroit—10000000—4 3 2

Detroit, 0; Milwaukee, 0.

At Milwaukee—10000000—4 3 2

Milwaukee, 0; St. Paul, 0.

At St. Paul—10000000—4 3 2

St. Paul, 0; Minneapolis, 0.

At Minneapolis—10000000—4 3 2

Minneapolis, 0; Kansas City, 0.

At Kansas City—10000000—4 3 2

Kansas City, 0; St. Louis, 0.

At St. Louis—10000000—4 3 2

St. Louis, 0; Cincinnati, 0.

At Cincinnati—10000000—4 3 2

Cincinnati, 0; Cleveland, 0.

At Cleveland—10000000—4 3 2

Cleveland, 0; Detroit, 0.

At Detroit—10000000—4 3 2

Detroit, 0; Milwaukee, 0.

At Milwaukee—10000000—4 3 2

Milwaukee, 0; St. Paul, 0.

At St. Paul—10000000—4 3 2

St. Paul, 0; Minneapolis, 0.

At Minneapolis—10000000—4 3 2

Minneapolis, 0; Kansas City, 0.

At Kansas City—10000000—4 3 2

Kansas City, 0; St. Louis, 0.

At St. Louis—10000000—4 3 2

St. Louis, 0; Cincinnati, 0.

At Cincinnati—10000000—4 3 2

Cincinnati, 0; Cleveland, 0.

At Cleveland—10000000—4 3 2

Cleveland, 0; Detroit, 0.

At Detroit—10000000—4 3 2

Detroit, 0; Milwaukee, 0.

At Milwaukee—10000000—4 3 2

Milwaukee, 0; St. Paul, 0.

At St. Paul—10000000—4 3 2

St. Paul, 0; Minneapolis, 0.

At Minneapolis—10000000—4 3 2

Minneapolis, 0; Kansas City, 0.

At Kansas City—10000000—4 3 2

Kansas City, 0; St. Louis, 0.

CELESTIAL MISS FIX IT WON GOV. GANONG CHALLENGE CUP

Eleventh Annual Dog Show Closed Last Evening—Motion Pictures Taken of Winners and Officials—Presentation to W. C. McKay and Robert A. Ross.

The eleventh annual show of the N. B. Kennel Club is over, but the memory will linger until next year as the biggest and best show that has yet been conducted in the city and an event that will rank with most of the best in the Dominion.

Yesterday afternoon motion pictures were taken of all the prize winners, winning exhibitors and officials by the Pathé-Freres animated newspaper people, and local fanciers will have the pleasure of seeing themselves on the screen in a week or two.

Last night the closing hours of the show were marked by an unusually large attendance and great excitement, as the special prizes were awarded and competition in every class was very keen.

In each class the local dogs made an exceptionally good showing, in many cases carrying off the honors from the Upper Canada exhibitors. The Airedales, especially, looked their best, and every cup and prize that left the province last night was won, and took considerable winning.

H. R. McLellan, ex-commissioner of Public Safety and donor of one of the leading prizes, presented the awards to the winning exhibitors. A happy feature of the evening's programme was the presentation to W. C. McKay, the efficient and popular secretary of the club, of a handsome insignia ring, the joint gift of his admiring fellow club members. Robert A. Ross, Montreal, the officiating judge, also came in for some attention and in a neat speech by Mr. McLellan, was presented with a cartoon of himself in the act of judging one of the classes, a work of art created by a local cartoonist. Mr. Ross has made hosts of friends during his stay in the city and he can be sure of a right hearty welcome whenever he comes again, whenever he makes a local dog fancier. He was the right man in the right place.

For the third time, making every time since the trophy has been up for competition, the Governor Ganong Challenge Cup for the best dog of bitch, bred and whelped in this province and owned by a club member, was won last night by a Fredericton winner—Celestial Miss Fix It, the excellent Airedale owned by John McMorley, of the Capital city. Last year the trophy was won by J. J. McCaffery, and the year before W. W. Laskey took home the cup. It must be won three times successively before the winner retains possession.

The following is a complete list of all the awards made yesterday:

Wire-haired Fox Terriers.
Canadian bred dogs—Alegweith Derby Bristles, owned by Wallace M. Sheehan, Dalhousie.
Winners, dogs—Ridgeway Dark Boy (valued at $1,000), owned by James McMorley, Fredericton.
Best local dog—Chris Corporal owned by Barry Wilson, St. John.

Puppy bitches—Miss Canada, owned by L. Preston, city.
Winners, bitches—Kate of Derby owned by James Strachan, Montreal Reserve to Northern Wickie, owned by LeBaron Wilson, city.

Airedales.
Puppy dogs—Ypres Defender, owned by W. Smith, West St. John.
Best Canadian bred dog—Come Back Coon, owned by C. Raleigh Myers, Riverview.
Winners, dogs—Come Back Coon, owned by William Gray, North End Reserve to Newcastle, owned by W. C. McKay, Opera House.

Best Canadian bred bitch—Celestial Dream, owned by John McMorley, Fredericton; reserve to Celestial Miss Fix It.
Winners, bitches—Parkton Sweet Olive, owned by Norman McKenzie, Regina.
Special prize for best of breed—Parkton Sweet Olive; reserve to Celestial Miss Fix It.

Shepherd Dogs (Police Dogs).
Sister, pupped by Lieut. K. S. Barnes, city.
Schipperkes.
Lilith dogs—Tigh, owned by Scott people on the grounds today.

Ex-Warden John Scott of this city now in his 89th year, is probably the oldest exhibitor at the Fredericton exhibition. He had some garden corn on exhibition and was awarded second prize.

The Royal Gazette of this week contains notice to the effect that His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to remove John R. Dunn of Gagetown for the office of clerk of the peace, clerk of circuit court, clerk of county court, registrar of probate and master of supreme court for the County of Queens, Francis M. O'Neill, of Gagetown, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Dunn in all offices except that of master of supreme court for the County of Queens.

Mr. O'Neill is the eldest son of Hugh O'Neill of Fredericton, and recently located at Gagetown upon his return from overseas to practice law.

Aime M. Bellevue and Thadée A. Gallant, both of Moncton, have formed a partnership under the name of Bellevue and Gallant to carry on a retail grocery business.

Rev. E. G. Baker, of the City of St. John, Baptist, and Rev. Joseph Boland Morrell, of St. John, Roman Catholic, have been registered to solemnize marriages.

One returned soldier, S. M. Ritchie, who recently qualified for the forest rangers' examinations, has been appointed forest ranger with headquarters at Hillsboro. This is the first appointment following the examinations recently held.

The total value of the timber on the berths sold at the timber sale yesterday amounted to $5,771.10, making the total value of the timber sold about $52,711.

Visitors at the exhibition include James W. Gallant, James A. Gibson and J. H. Dewitt, directors of the Woodstock exhibition. They are keen on getting the provincial exhibition for Woodstock next year and believe they will be successful in obtaining the grant of $5,000 from the government.

The Fredericton exhibition is having the biggest attendance today in history. More than ten thousand people had paid admission up to 9 o'clock last night, and was easily the biggest crowd in history of the local fairs. The management declared that including those who entered the grounds without passing through the turnstiles there were not less than 12,000.

At the exhibition includes James W. Gallant, James A. Gibson and J. H. Dewitt, directors of the Woodstock exhibition. They are keen on getting the provincial exhibition for Woodstock next year and believe they will be successful in obtaining the grant of $5,000 from the government.

The Fredericton exhibition is having the biggest attendance today in history. More than ten thousand people had paid admission up to 9 o'clock last night, and was easily the biggest crowd in history of the local fairs. The management declared that including those who entered the grounds without passing through the turnstiles there were not less than 12,000.

At the exhibition includes James W. Gallant, James A. Gibson and J. H. Dewitt, directors of the Woodstock exhibition. They are keen on getting the provincial exhibition for Woodstock next year and believe they will be successful in obtaining the grant of $5,000 from the government.

The Fredericton exhibition is having the biggest attendance today in history. More than ten thousand people had paid admission up to 9 o'clock last night, and was easily the biggest crowd in history of the local fairs. The management declared that including those who entered the grounds without passing through the turnstiles there were not less than 12,000.

At the exhibition includes James W. Gallant, James A. Gibson and J. H. Dewitt, directors of the Woodstock exhibition. They are keen on getting the provincial exhibition for Woodstock next year and believe they will be successful in obtaining the grant of $5,000 from the government.

The Fredericton exhibition is having the biggest attendance today in history. More than ten thousand people had paid admission up to 9 o'clock last night, and was easily the biggest crowd in history of the local fairs. The management declared that including those who entered the grounds without passing through the turnstiles there were not less than 12,000.

Talent Was Upset At Fredericton

Singer, Owned by E. Burke of St. John, Won 2.18 Class and Took New Record of 2.15-1-4.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Sept. 18.—Today's racing in connection with the Fredericton exhibition was full of sensations, except the 2.25 pace, which was won easily by Touse, 2.15-1-4 the favorite.

Singer, owned and driven by E. Burke, of St. John, upset the talent by winning the 2.18 class handily, and took a new race record of 2.15-1-4. The 2.16 trot went six heats and was finally won by Victoria, never considered in the betting. Brage, the favorite, owned by R. H. Edwards, of Halifax, won the first heat, but Roy Miller won the second heat in 2.13-3-4, a new track record for trotters in race, and took the next heat in 2.15-1-4. The fourth heat was won by Victoria, owned by Dr. D. H. McAllister, of Sussex, the other four horses all breaking in the race. The judges called B. F. Heardon, of Moncton, owner and driver of Roy Miller, to the stand, and later when the horses were called out, they put driver Peter Carroll, of Halifax, up behind Roy Miller. No reason for the act was announced, and when Roy Miller acted badly in the scoring the crowd was further heard of the case. This demonstration increased when Roy Miller made a break on the first turn and never again got going, being behind in distance flag at the finish of the heat.

Reardon at once went to the stand again and the crowd howled in derision at the judges, swarmed out on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the back stretch and was badly beaten by Victoria, which was his admission on the track and demanded a reason for the removal of Reardon from behind Roy Miller. The judges placed Roy Miller and that ruled out Brage, who had been an almost even favorite. It against the field, as only double heat winners started in the sixth heat. They finally also allowed Reardon to drive his horse again. He started away in front but was passed the second time around on the