Dominion Day
Aquatic Meet

Programme for R. K. Y. C. at Millidgeville Include Rowing and Yacht Racing.

Arrangements are being completed by the R. K. Y. C. for their members day programme of yacht, motor boat and rowing races, which will be carried out at Millidgeville on Dominion Day. The Saint John Power Boat Club have joined hands with the Yacht Club for that day, and all races and features relating to power boats will be under their control, entries for the power boat races to be made with the Secretary of the Power Boat Club.

Starting at 11 a. m. with the motor cruiser races, there will be something going on on the water continuously until 8.30 or 9 p. m. when a dance will be held in the Club House.

During the afternoon a band will play on the club pier while the races are in progress and sailing and boating is enjoyed by everyone.

An evening of full orchestra will furnish the music for dancing. The shell races will take place early in the evening, to afford those who cannot get out for the whole day an opportunity of seeing them.

The Yacht Club House has been repaired, and extensive repairs have been made to the club docks and pier. The club quarters now present a very pleasing appearance, and on the holiday the club-house and all yachts will be decorated.

Extra bus facilities are being arranged to handle the crowds which it is expected will avail themselves of the opportunity to see the races from the shore. The ideal location of Millidgeville will permit the boats to be in full view at all times during the races.

Invitations are being sent to all out-going and boating clubs in and around the city to participate in making the day a success. An effort is also being made to have a four-oared crew and singles brought from Halifax to row against the local oarsmen, and later in the season the Club hopes to recede by sending crews to Halifax to race.

Cups will be presented to the winners of all shell races by the Club and many beautiful prizes are being donated for the other events.

The ladies of the Millidgeville Summer Club have the dance arrangements in hand, and there will also be a caterer on the club grounds. Lunches, soft drinks, and ices may be had; also parties wishing to picnic for the day may procure hot coffee, tea, etc., at a small cost.

The programme includes Motor Cruiser Race, Semi-Speed and Speed; Arbitrary Handicap Yacht Racing; Four-oared Boat Race; Single Races—Boys' Singles; Junior Singles; Junior Pairs; Senior Singles; Senior Pairs.

Drifts—Rowing—Senior Boys under fourteen.
Canoe—Singles; Doubles.
Swimming—Boys, under twelve; Boys, under seventeen; Senior.

Entries are being received by Harry W. Heans, Chairman Sports Committee, P. O. Box 675.

CARPENTIER'S OFFICIAL WAR
RECORD OF THE VERY BEST

Enlisted as Chauffeur in August 1914. Airplane Pilot May 1915—Received Croix de Guerre Sept. 1915 and Medaille Militaire for Heroic Action Nov. 1916—His Boxing Record.

New York, June 22.—Georges Carpentier, the French people, is the "Man of Destiny." No more do they doubt the ability of this man, decorated for bravery during the world war, to defeat Jack Dempsey on July 2, than they doubted the ability of the Allied armies finally to overcome Germany. They have followed the steady rise of the young pugilist from the days when, as a bantamweight, he first gained national note. They have studied accounts of his history before that time. In their minds, Dempsey will be unable to tell this national hero, just as German machine guns which are said to have riddled his plane repeatedly, were unable to bring him down.

Carpentier's official war record, investigated recently, revealed that the boxer spent 18 months at the front, flying a two-seater observation plane. He received the Croix de Guerre and the Medaille Militaire.

The record shows that Carpentier, enlisting as a chauffeur in August, 1914, received a license to pilot a Farman airplane in May, 1915. He was sent with a squadron to the front, remaining three months and then was assigned to general reserve aviation as a spare pilot.

On August 28, 1915, Carpentier suffered a leg injury but recovered rapidly and was sent to the front with the Farman Escadrille for reconnoitering and in preparation for the Champagne offensive, which began Sept. 26, 1915.

Carpentier's citation, which resulted in the award of the Croix de Guerre, reads: "Sept. 25, he did not hesitate to fly during misty weather and rain less than 200 yards above enemy lines. He has given proof in many circumstances of being cool, never returning until his mission was accomplished, often with his machine riddled with bullets and shell splinters.

On Nov. 5, 1916, Carpentier received the Medaille Militaire for heroic action. In December, 1916, he was forced to quit the front because of illness and never returned. In May, 1917, he was declared physically unfit to continue as a pilot. He was detached from aviation and detailed as army physical instructor near Paris. Six months after the armistice, he was transferred back to the aviation and demobilized.

Carpentier's courteous demeanor and evident culture, unusual in a boxer, have created the impression in America that he is the son of wealthy parents. This is not so.

The son of a miner, Carpentier was born in Lens, the coal-mining centre of France, on Jan. 12, 1894. He started work as an office boy in a brewery. The ring called at an early age, however, and when only 14, he took up boxing, then being popularized in France by the visits of "Kid" McCoy and other American fighters.

At the same time, he was dancing and singing in the cafes and restaurants of his native Lens, with Francois Descamps, who has ever since been his companion, guardian and manager. It was Descamps who discovered Carpentier the requisites of a potential boxer. He attempted, one day, to punish the youth, using boxing gloves rather than the American "switch" in the midst of the scheduled "punishment." Descamps relates that "Georges sidestepped with agility and poise—the lights suddenly went out on me."

From that moment, Georges was a boxer. He fought his first professional bout on Nov. 10, 1914, against Edmond and Egan, and won by a knockout.

On Nov. 10, 1914, Carpentier won by a knockout, featured his 1915 battles. Carpentier showed great gameness in his first fight with Wells when he was knocked down for the second time in the first round, but when he was knocked down for the second time in the fourth, he came back to win in the fourth.

The second Wells battle was a Carpentier victory in one round. In the same battle, he knocked out Cyclone Smith, Bandman Rice and George Gunther. Carpentier lost no ground in the eyes of ring followers when defeated by Joe Jeannette, the American negro heavyweight champion, in May, 1916. But the war was close at hand and his six-round victory over Gunboat Smith on a foul was his only important battle before the young Frenchman exchanged boxing gloves for an airplane and machine gun. Exhibitions behind the lines composed his entire boxing activities until 1919 when, shortly after being discharged from the service, he knocked out Dick Smith in Paris. Since that time, his battles with Joe Beckett, of England, which he won in a round, and that in which he knocked out Batting Levinsky in four rounds at Jersey City, N. J., last summer, have been his only contests of importance.

The Levinsky fight is the only one in which Americans have seen Carpentier in formal action on this side of the water. It was a fiasco, so far as a championship test is concerned. The Frenchman will climb through the ropes on July 2, an unknown quality, so far as the first-hand information of American boxing fans is concerned.

Ogden and Egan, Dolson and Pridger.

SELL OPERA HOUSE.

New York, June 21.—The Manhattan Opera House on West 34th street will be sold at auction by Sheriff Knott, June 22, by order of the Supreme Court to satisfy a lien of $143,224.

The lien is held by Stella H. Keating and Rose H. Tevetin, daughters of the late Oscar Hammerstein.

St. John Amateur
Rowing Club

Formed With Large Membership—Hilton Belyea and Two Others Go to Boston.

An enthusiastic meeting was held in the West End last evening, when it was decided to form the St. John Amateur Rowing Club, and as a start forty-five members were elected, and the new club will start out immediately to place St. John on the rowing map, where it was some years ago and has been in the recent few years. All present last evening are now in good standing, and the membership will grow rapidly, for the objects are real.

J. A. Gregory was elected honorary president; Harry A. Belyea, president; J. F. Brittain, vice-president; Hugh L. McCavour, secretary-treasurer. The objects of the club are to promote and encourage amateur rowing at St. John and to assist in sending champion oarsmen to compete in events to take place in other cities.

It was decided by the club to send Hilton Belyea, the Martins' Amateur Champion, to Boston for the New England Championship races, which will be held on July 4. The winner of the junior race at Millidgeville on Dominion Day will also be sent to compete in the intermediate events at Boston, and last, but not least, Granville McCavour, the boy wonder in the rowing game, will accompany the party to compete in the junior championships.

When the older aquatic followers look back on the days of the Paris crew and other crews who brought fame to St. John in the rowing game, they will be glad to know that the newly formed club is working along the same line, it will be glad news to them, for at the present time St. John was never equipped with a larger field of oarsmen. Hilton Belyea rowed against the best from Boston last year and won, and there is little doubt that he will make good in the coming regatta at the Hub, for he is still rowing strong, and the other oarsmen who accompany him will surely make a fight for first place.

The members of the club are enthusiastic and every one a worker, and this all means success and encouragement for the young men and boys who have taken up the rowing game. The material is right here in the city, and they will be all given a chance to make good.

St. Peters Won
Hard Fought Game

Pirates Shut Out Champions Until Last Inning—Batting Rally Brought Victory.

One of the best games of ball in the Senior League was played last evening when the St. Peters defeated the Pirates by a score of three to two and then the game was won by the Saints in the last inning of seven by a batting rally and a collision between the Pirates shortstop and left fielder. The Pirates gained a run in the second inning and another in the fifth and it looked as if they had the game on 100 as the Saints were shut out until the last inning when they came across with timely hits and the collision between opponent players which gave them three runs and the game.

It was close ball throughout and enjoyed by the large crowd present. The official score and summary follow:—
