On Saturday continued two and a half hours. The attendance was large. The Pastor, Rev. G. W. McDonald, presided. There were many testimonies as to the grace of God and the blessedness of Christian service. It was a meeting of comfort and encouragement. The hour for closing came much too soon to allow all who were anxious to take part, the privilege of doing so, and upon an invitation being given for all who so desired to simply rise in testimony of their faith, a large number did so.
